The Editor's column

by S. R. PADDOCK

Paddock Publications this week received $1,499 from William Trude of Trude Land and Development Co., representing contributions to the Arlington Youth Activity Fund made by out-of-town visitors at the Reader's Choice Home built by the Trude organization and sponsored by a national magazine.

As was stated on the placard soliciting contributions, the fund has been placed in trust with the editor of this paper for youth activities of the community. It will be so expended.

The brand of public service that William Trude has repeatedly shown during the past few years has been good medicine for the entire community. Although there was considerable extra expense in keeping the home open, he has kept faith with Arlington youth, and in their behalf the editor says, "Thank you, Mr. Trude."

Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Loucks, Dundee and Rand road have appealed to the editor to aid in the return of a white cat that neighbors say was picked up Friday by a stranger. They have shed many tears and we hope that if the man who might have thought he was picking up a stray cat, will get in touch with the family by calling Palatine 697-R-1, he will receive the thanks of Donald and Barbara Ann who are grieving their loss.

A recent order by the U. S. postal department is making a "circular boy" out of the city mail carriers, which in turn threatens to delay first class mail. The order authorized the handling of advertising literature by city carriers, without name or address of recipient.

It was at first thought it would be a service to local businessmen. Instead the mails are flooded with advertising circulars from everywhere, which in turn is detrimental to local businessmen.

Newspaper editors throughout the country have registered a strong protest in Washington. It is expected that small businessmen will soon realize that Uncle Sam is helping the mail order or other big organizations to sell their goods in competition to local businessmen.

When we entered the dining room of a Washington Hotel for breakfast two weeks ago we found ourselves surrounded by "Grass Roots" cattlemen. They were fighting mad at the Secretary of Agriculture, who had turned them down the previous day on their request for price support for grass fed cattle.

When they discovered there was an editor in their midst, we had more propaganda thrown at us than we ever received from any candidate for office. They brought out statements of returns they had received from commissions for cattle shipped to them the past three years.

The drop from 30 cents down as low as 12 cents, they claimed, would be sending a lot of them to the poorhouse. They were not only sorry for themselves, but for the young fellows who had borrowed money to enter cattle business and for the implement men and auto dealers who they claimed are going into bankruptcy in Dakota and Nebraska.

They added the banks will not loan any money on cattle. In their opinion, the secretary's action in denying their request is the start of a new "Republican depression." They admitted that they had made a lot of money the last few years, had increased their herds, etc., and perhaps had used that money to enlarge operations, which in turn had flooded the market.

They sought to gain the sympathy of the consumer by claiming the big plants had not adequately reduced the retail price of meat. We told them that the consumers in the Chicago area have had to eat hamburger so long that they had forgotten there were such things as porterhouse and sirloin steaks.

We did not have any answer to give them as they boarded the big bus and started on their journey west. The majority of those cattlemen wore bigger hats and were better dressed than the farmers of Cook and DuPage counties.

Yes, it is true, delinquent personal property taxpayers are paying up and local schools will receive a lot of unexpected money. The campaign that has been initiated by Judge Gutknecht through Judges Haggenjos of Barrington and Judge Weber of Arlington Heights is getting results.

Some of the businessmen have discovered that a tax judgment filed against them by the state's attorney threatens their credit. The judges are no longer apologetic when they ask someone to pay up. They are even discovering old "waste basket" bills of previous years that had been "forgotten" by taxpayers.

If the resident of Prospect Heights who sent a letter to us asking that we investigate a certain local judge, will tell us what we are to investigate, we will be most happy to get busy.

Janet Packard wastes no time purchasing her tickets for the Woody Herman Jazz Concert to be held in the new gym at Arlington Heights high school tonight, Thursday, at 8:30 o'clock. Ken Lemke, one of the ushers, is shown selling her tickets. The concert will star Woody Herman and the Third Herd, Billy Eckstine and Sid Bechet, and is being sponsored by the Wheeling Township Junior Chamber of Commerce. Part of the proceeds will aid the campaign for the proposed hospital in this area. Tickets are $3.50 for main floor reserved section, $3 for balance of main floor, $2.50 for balcony, and $2 for student balcony tickets. Tickets will be available at the door. —Fellingham Photo.

FINAL WEEK IN ARLINGTON'S COMMUNITY CHEST CAMPAIGN

Developer Given Green Light To Build 45 Homes

Virginia Terrace subdivision was given the green light by the Arlington Heights village board Monday night to obtain permits to build 45 homes in the subdivision along Oakton and Wilke rd.

The approval stipulated, however, the houses could not be connected to sewer and water facilities until the board had approved the plans for sewer and water improvements in the entire 80-acre subdivision. The developer, Raymond Lutgert, will also be requested to put up $40,000 in escrow and to furnish $360,000 in completion bonds, to pay for the proposed improvements.

Two trustees, Richard Bronwell and Charles Rehfeldt, voted no on the proposition.

The village board unanimously approved the recommendation of the zoning board of appeals to permit the rezoning of two lots on the northeast corner of Wilke rd. and Campbell st., from residential to business, to permit the erection of a gas station on the site.

Bids were opened on the proposed sewer and water improvements for Hickory st., and Joe Pezzette of Chicago was awarded the contract. He promised completion within 120 days.

Approval was also given the developers of Virginia Terrace subdivision to put in a 10-foot street improvement on the north half of Oakton from Wilke rd. to Race ave. The developer will put in a nine-inch waterbound macadam base according to village specifications on the north half of the street, and cover the entire street, the south half already being paved with concrete, with a 1½ inch I-11 topping. The improvement will also include curb, gutter and sidewalk.

Trustees William Luehring and Charles Rehfeldt voted no on the issue.

The motor fuel tax allotment for September totaled $3,538.50.

COMMUNITY CHEST

Last year Arlington Heights, a young city of 10,000, contributed $16,000 to the Community Chest. After meeting all the pledges to local youth groups and nurses' club, there was a substantial balance.

This year this city of more than 13,000 is short $9,000 of doing the anticipated Red Feather job.

We do not know the reason. There is still time for the city of Arlington Heights to make good, but the job should be completed within the next few days.

It is no secret that the Red Feather method of meeting community needs in Arlington Heights will come to a sudden end unless a lot of life is breathed into the present campaign. We can not shut down the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Center and Little League organizations. If the campaign fails it is possible these groups will be compelled to stage their own campaign this year to make up the difference between their needs and what they will receive from the Community Chest.

Unless there is a loosening of purse strings, especially on the part of business and industrial firms, Uncle Sam will be collecting in income tax, December 1953, the money you people gave to the Community Chest last year.

In behalf of all the 4,000 youth of Arlington Heights this paper appeals to all residents to help keep alive the Community Chest method of handling local charities.

Additional contributions can be mailed to Community Chest, P. O. Box 33, Arlington Heights.

Traffic Fines Mount; Violator Pays $109 for Driving While Drinking

More than $230 was collected in traffic court at Arlington Heights Monday night. The largest fine assessed was $109 against a man driving while under the influence of liquor.

Other fines were for speeding and improper display of license plates.

Howard Rotovator, 1600 E. Davis, reported to police that $100 worth of hydraulic equipment had been stolen from a tractor parked outside their building the night of November 5. Four bikes were also reported stolen, none of which had been recovered to date.

The police also picked up two 11-year-old boys found playing on top of box cars parked west of the Vail st. crossing. The boys, who live in Chicago, had permission from their parents to come to Arlington Heights to play, though they had no friends or relatives in the village. The one boy had taken $8 from his bank to pay for the excursion.

E. Ormsbee reported to police his auto had been caught between the Vail st. gates November 9 and the top of the car was damaged. He said he did not hear any bells ringing.

Four prairie fires and one rubbish fire kept the Arlington Heights fire department busy the past week. Fire Chief Elroy Winkelman warns residents against starting grass fires without proper protection. It is costly to call out the fire department for such unnecessary fires and endangers the safety of the entire village.

$9,000 Needed To Meet Needs Of Local Budget

With the end of the 1951 Arlington Heights Community Chest Fund campaign a week away, Henry Hutten, president, urged drive workers to intensify follow-up calls to homes and business places which have not been contacted during the last three weeks.

Speaking to a group of area leaders, Hutten said, "We are now at the three-quarter mark in our drive for funds. The total collected to date is $12,069.93, slightly more than $9,000 short of our $21,398 goal.

"We are sorry if we missed some homes; residents may not have been in at the time the worker called, or through some misunderstanding, the resident may not have been canvassed originally."

MEMBERS OF the campaign committee, co-chairmened by William A. Gerbosi and Weir Swanson, are in the process of checking pledge cards in an effort to get records corrected for the final report to be made November 19, the closing date of the drive. Checking is also going on to insure that each home and business place in Arlington Hts. has been contacted.

"This additional work would be simplified greatly," Hutten told the group, "if individuals and businesses who have not as yet contributed to this year's Fund Drive would do so by sending their contributions to the Arlington Heights Community Chest, Post Office Box 33, Arlington Heights.

"It is quite evident from the figures to date we need every contribution. The need for funds is great — thirteen separate organizations have abandoned individual fund raising campaigns to join in the Chest's united giving effort.

"IT IS imperative, therefore, that we bend every avenue during this final week to collect the $9,000 which we need to meet the budgets of these thirteen organizations and services."

Of the $21,398 Chest goal, 85% or more than $18,000 has been budgeted for Arlington Heights youth activities, including the Youth Center, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts, Brownies and Little League. The remainder is to be distributed to the Arlington Heights Nurses' club lending closet, the Arlington Heights library fund, the Salvation army, the Heart fund, the Arthritis fund, the Cerebral Palsy fund and the Seeing Eye Dog association.

Hutten said the Arlington Hts. Community Chest greatly appreciates the work being done by the volunteer workers, and the generous way in which contributors have responded to the Chest's call for funds.

Invite Parents, General Public To Open House

Plans for the future will be discussed by Kenneth E. Dougan as part of the program for the Arlington Heights high school annual open house to be held November 19, at 8 p.m., in the new gym.

Larry Jenness, chairman of the faculty committee, will act as master of ceremonies during the evening. All parents, as well as adults without children, are invited to attend this affair and take advantage of tse opportunity offered to view the new addition to the high school.

Also on the evening's program is an organ recital by Martin C. Dahlberg, instructor, and Judith Walters, student. The organ dedicatory remarks will be made by John Schaff. New teachers will be introduced by Supt. LeRoy J. Knoeppel and Elmer F. Laurin, president of the school board, will present awards.

At 9:15 p.m. the entire session will adjourn to the cafeteria to "Get acquainted over a cup of coffee."

School Holiday For Kids; Teachers Have Institute To Study Local Problems

Students, but not the teachers, at Arlington Heights high school, will have a holiday Wednesday, Nov. 18, which will be a teachers' institute day.

The high school teachers will conduct a workshop institute by themselves this year, dealing with specific problems in this school.

Secretary of State Issues Hospital Charter For Northwest Towns

"Northwest Community Hospital Center," a not for profit corporation, was chartered this week by Charles F. Carpentier, the Secretary of State for the State of Illinois.

The area to be served by the new hospital will include Barrington, Palatine, Wheeling, Schaumburg and Elk Grove townships.

At its organizational meeting, the new corporation will name a permanent Board of Directors selected from citizens of the above areas.

The Palatine Chamber of Commerce and the Palatine Fire Department, realizing the great need for a hospital in this area, originated the present hospital drive more than a year ago.

A complete fund raising campaign has been formulated by the new corporation, the exact details of which will be announced at a later date.

This brings the fulfilling of our Northwest area hospital needs one step nearer to realization.

Franke Heads Committee To Study State Road Grade Separation

In response to a letter received from the village board, Arlington Heights Plan Commission has named a committee to study a possible grade separation at the North Western right-of-way and State rd. The members are William Franke, chairman; Evrell E. Plank and Edmund J. O'Brien.

It is estimated that the separation would cost about three-quarters of a million dollars as the Northwest highway would also be involved.

Don Florence Returns to Arlington Realty Firm

Don Florence, who was one of the partners in the original Willson & Florence realty firm at Arlington Heights, is back on the job in the same office. At area, Hendrickson needed addihe has taken up where he left off when he moved to Virginia several years ago.

Due to the increased activity in the real estate market in this area, Henrickson needed additional personnel in his organization. Of course Florence is a "natural" especially because of his realty background here and knowledge of the real estate business. The firm will expand its activities to include farm properties.

Palatine Residents Among 11 Injured In Two Accidents

Three Palatine persons were injured in a two car collision at Northwest hwy. and Baldwin rd., northwest of Palatine, Tuesday evening.

Ann Acree, 18, of 165 S. Bothwell, suffered a fractured wrist, and Carol Harmon, 16, 349 W. Slade, suffered a chipped pelvic bone. Francis Black, Rt. 2, Palatine, driver of the other auto, was also hurt. All were taken to an Elgin hospital for treatment.

Miss Acree was attempting to leave U. S. 14 to enter the old highway into Palatine when her auto was struck by Black's, which was crossing the highway to enter Baldwin rd.

Eight persons, six of whom were children, were injured in a two-car head-on collision on Rand rd., approximately ¼ mile south of Palatine rd., Saturday night. The cars were driven by Maurice Foley, 11 Ridgeland, McHenry, and Katherine Wolbrandt, 5153 Galite, Skokie.

All were taken to St. Francis hospital, Evanston, for treatment.

Both of these accidents were handled by State highway police and Arlington Fender and Body Shop cleared the wreckage.

'A Waltz Dream' On Stage This Saturday Night

Approximately 280 students of Arlington Heights high school will participate in Saturday's performance of the Oscar Straus-Joseph Herbert operetta "A Waltz Dream." Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The story is one of an obstinate princess who finally agrees to marry only to have her fiance fall in love with someone else. Working out the complications which follow makes an interesting story, much of which is told in song.

THE LARGE choruses of tourists, soldiers, ladies and gentlemen of the court, townspeople and spectators are made up of members of the various choral groups in the music department. They will be accompanied by the high school orchestra, with Adrienne Double as pianist.

Members of the Band Front class, directed by Elaine England, will present the dances called for in the play. These include waltzes, a minuet, tap and soft shoe dances.

Speaking and solo parts are as follows: Phil Wintergerst, baritone, Maximilian X, King of Sylvania; Hope Seffens, soprano, Princess Helene; Ray Feind, Prince Rupert, cousin of Helene; John Lee, baritone, Lieutenant Niki, an Austrian army officer; Ginger Cowen, soprano, Kay Robinson, an American artist; Joanne Beatty, alto, Princess Matilda, a sister of the king; Robert Molumby, Lieutenant Montschi, of the Sylvanian army; Helen Browneil, Louisa, a duchess; Pat Nangle, Bertram Budgett, an American efficiency expert; Robert Peters, Count Lothar, of the Sylvanian Court; Robert Russell, Count Sigismund, of the Sylvanian Court; Tom Harting, Nicholas, of the court; Virginia Rechberger, alto, Fifi, a singer; Kay Whitelaw, mezzo, Annerl, a singer; Tom Johnson, a guide.

STAGING AND lighting will be handled by Fredrick Schmoyer, head of the music department, Eugene Howard, dramatics coach, Doug Morrissey, of Paint and Wig, and a committee from the band

Lawrence Jenness, speech teacher, will supervise make-up.

June Leick and Martin Dahlberg, music teachers, have supervised the production of the operetta.

Student committees are: properties—Kathleen Cooke, Joan Fischer, and Sandra Davajon; costumes — Jean Rose, Harriet Mollenkamp and Ruth Ann Johnson.

Officer Ullock Takes Traffic Law Course

Patrolman Thomas A. Ullock of the Arlington Heights police department is attending a three weeks' course in traffic law enforcement at the Northwest Traffic Institute at Northwestern university.

Officer Ullock began the course November 2 and will complete it November 20.

Supt. Puffer To Ask Builders To Meet School Officials

Double shifts for Mount Prospect grade school children was recommended to the local board of education by an expert in the field of school problems.

This would be the least harmful to the children of the available expediency measures, Dr. William C. Reavis of the University of Chicago concluded after his survey of the situation last week.

The village must attract industry, he told school and civic leaders, to ease the financial burdens of the school district. "Mt. Prospect can't support its schools with the tax base the new homes give," he commented. "The school district will always be behind in school facilities, and will have to adopt some make-shifts."

School district 57 has already levied the maximum amount allowed by state law for educational and building maintenance costs, and the Lincoln school addition bonds practically exhausted the bonding power to construct more buildings.

Based on anticipated increases in assessed valuation from new building and on the retirement of outstanding bonds, the district might be able to construct five or six classrooms a year instead of the 13 recommended.

The local school enrollment problem is aggravated by the fact most of the homes being built are purchased by young families with small children.

DR. REAVIS allayed fears that the district would build too many schools with the birth rate figures for 1952, which exceed the previous high year of 1947. He also quoted there was a 13% increase in families with four children in 1952 over 1951, indicating the larger family pattern coming into vogue.

Parents will need to participate in teaching their children, he said, under the double shift program.

He also suggested prospective home buyers be warned of the critical over-crowding facing the schools.

He recommended the board of education secure information on lower cost buildings to stretch the available money.

At the village board meeting Tuesday night, Mayor Lams asked the trustees to cooperate with school officials in seeking help from builders, with the though they might be persuaded to provide school facilities.

Noble J. Puffer, county superintendent of schools, has announced he will call a meeting later in the month of administrators of the county school systems and real estate developers, to seek a solution to the burden put on communities when builders put up large numbers of homes.

Puffer pointed out the children attend school as soon as the families move in, while there is often a two year lag before any taxes are paid. It is the responsibility of builders to assist the local school systems, he said.

THE CRITICAL financial problem results from the unprecedented growth, due mainly to a few large subdividers. Dr. Reavis calculated the district should build at least 13 classrooms each year for the next five years. He estimated on the basis of the average growth during the last four years the school enrollment in 1958 would be over 3100 children.

Plans of subdividers already announced indicate increased building activity next year.

'Top Notch' Meals Served In Work-Saving Cafeteria

It could easily be said the students attending Arlington Heights high school are among the best fed kids in the area. The reporter came to this conclusion after touring the high school cafeteria last Friday in connection with American Education Week.

The kitchen of the cafeteria is equipped with every modern convenience a cook would need. Because of these features a staff of nine can prepare meals for more than 1200 students and teachers a day. Miss Mary Handlin, cafeteria director, said approximately 500 of these purchase the plate lunch, while the balance either buy milk, soup, ice cream or candy as a supplement to the sandwiches they bring from home.

MISS HANDLIN

Menus are always announced in advance and the staff knows they have to prepare extras if its a hamburger, barbecue or spaghetti day. The plates sell for 35 cents or 25 cents. A typical 35 cent lunch includes barbecue or ham on bun, baked potatoes, cucumber slices, ginger bread with apple sauce and milk, and a typical 25 cent lunch consists of some type of sandwich, soup or vegetable, fruit and milk.

EACH STAFF member is responsible for preparing a certain portion of the menu, which is nutritiously balanced. Labor saving devices such as an automatic potato peeler, which can peel a peck of potatoes at a time, and a combination shredder and mixer, aid in speeding up preparations.

One walk-in refrigerator, two reach-in refrigerators, one deep freeze and one baker's refrigerator help in keeping the food until it is ready to be served. There is a special oven, divided into six sections, used exclusively for baking cookies, cakes and rolls. Another oven, called a steamer chef, is capable of cooking two bushels of potatoes in 40 minutes, or 400 red hots, a crate of cabbage, carrots or other vegetables in 15 minutes. There is also a large grill used exclusively for hamburgers and toasted sandwiches. Still another big stove is used for cooking soups, roasting meats or deep fat frying.

One of the biggest time and labor saving devices is the automatic dishwashing equipment, which does trays, dishes and silverware in a matter of minutes, and eliminates any handling of the dishes once they are put on the conveyor to take them through the washer. Drying is eliminated because the dishes are so hot when they leave the washer they dry as soon as the air hits them.

FOOD USED in the cafeteria is purchased both locally and through wholesale dealers. A list of surplus commodities available is supplied to Miss Handlin each month and she selects the items she needs. Such items as frozen beef, canned beef, dry milk, canned peaches, canned peas, butter, cheese, bacon and dried lima beans appear on the list.

The percentage of federal aid available for the school's lunch program is based on the number of meals served. Meat or fish is on the menu every day, and students purchasing the 35 cent lunch may receive a second portion of the main dish for 15 cents.

Students have a 40-minute lunch period and may have to stand in line 10 or 12 minutes before being served. There are two lunch periods and 12 teachers work during each period to take the lunch money, make change, sell candy and milk, and see that the students clear their trays, which involves separating the dishes and silverware and scraping off any left over food.

Menus are planned by Miss Handlin, who is assisted by Mrs. Ada Koch. They both keep track of the number of meals served and do all other bookkeeping required in the cafeteria. Miss Ella Garms, chief cook, will observe her twenty-fifth anniversary in the cafeteria this January.

"Soups on," and what delicious soup it was too! Miss Ella Garms, who has been working in the Arlington Heights high school cafeteria for 25 years (come January), is chief cook and she is shown here preparing soup for Friday's meal at the high school cafeteria. —Staff Photo.

Kimball Hill Appears Before Plan Commission; Seeks Approval of Unit 3

Kimball Hill, Burton Smith and William Dean appeared before Arlington Heights Plan Commission November 2 and asked for an expression of the feeling of the members regarding the additional units and expansion of Rolling Meadows. Mr. Hill stated that unit No. 3 would include a public grounds area of about 20 acres which will be approximately two-thirds of the total area to be set aside for this purpose. He further stated that all roads will be paved with approved material; and that with respect to lot sizes he must insist on 60 ft. frontage because any attempt to create 66 ft. lots would involve considerable expense and engineering resulting in an undesirable realignment of streets and not in conformity with present streets in Units 1 and 2.

He further called attention to the fact that the master blue print of the entire proposed Rolling Meadows development was submitted to the Arlington Heights village board and Plan Commission long before the November 30, 1953 ordinance was passed and that on this basis he is entitled to obtain approval by the Plan Commission of future units.

As to the construction of homes, Mr. Hill said he cannot and will not conform to the Arlington Heights building code because the area is out of its jurisdiction. The commission informed Mr. Hill that careful consideration will be given to his request.

Seek Clothes For Bundle Days November 19-20

Many hundreds of children in rural areas of our own country are unable to go to school because they lack adequate clothing. Everyone can help—and it won't cost a cent! All one has to do is look in closets and dresser drawers and sort out the clothing—coats, sweaters, underclothing, shoes (not high heels) that he or the little ones don't wear anymore. The school children of the Arlington Heights public schools will be happy to do their part by carrying the bundles to school on Bundle Days, November 19 and 20.

MRS. E. J. ROBLE, welfare chairman for the Parent-Teacher association, will have a crew of members to assist her in readying the clothing for shipment to the headquarters of the Save the Children Federation from where they will go out to needy communities in this country, Indian reservations, overseas in Austria, Finland, France, Western Germany, Greece, Italy, Israel, Lebanon, and Yugoslavia. Overseas, all clothing is given away. In America it has been found a sounder social practice to make a small token charge, when feasible for families who "don't want charity" but who are nonetheless unable to purchase adequate clothing for their children.

All kinds of clean, warm clothing is needed, in babies', children's and adult sizes. Sheets and other bedding and low-heeled shoes are especially needed, the only stipulation made is that the garments be clean and in a wearable condition.

Advertisement for Bids

Dr. Carl Winters To Speak at Elk Grove November 19

DR. WINTERS

For their parents' night, November 19, Elk Grove school Mothers' club has obtained one of Chicago area's outstanding speakers, Dr. Carl Winters. Dr. Winters is minister of the First Baptist church of Oak Park and has talked to groups numbering a thousand or more.

Dr. Winters' subject, "Greatness Passing By," will consider the influence of home, school and church on the life of a child. He offers, according to the Elk Grove principal, Dennis Malcolmson, a talk both informative and entertaining, and should be of interest of all parents and friends in the district.

Mrs. George Adams, president of the Mothers' club, invites everyone who is interested to attend. The program begins at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium, and there is no admission charge.

Alfred Martin specializes in CUTTING HAIR

The basis of every pretty head is the shaping and the cutting. (Any woman can shampoo her hair . . . some can set it, if it's been carefully shaped and cut first). But the woman who cuts and shapes her own hair is a rarity!

Only an expert can do this — and Alfred Martin welcomes you to his studio where he and his assistants work deftly and precisely as sculptors — tapering and modeling your hair into beautiful lines.

So, do certainly have your hair cut and shaped at Alfred Martin Salon. And know it's being cared for by the skilled hands of an artist.

Joins Lauterburg and Oehler Funeral Staff

Thomas L. Cain, 111 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights, has joined the staff of Lauterburg & Oehler funeral home, Walter C. Oehler has announced.

A licensed funeral director and embalmer, Cain comes to Arlington Heights from Waverly, Ia., where he was a member of the Kaiser firm there. He is a member of the national conference board of funeral service.

A graduate of the St. Louis school of mortuary science, Cain also attended Loras college.

During World War II, he served as a technical sergeant with the U.S. army signal corps, spending almost two years in the Pacific theatre.

He and his wife Margaret have a one-year-old daughter, Colleen Anne. Mrs. Kane attended Upper Iowa university and taught in the Marshalltown, Ia., public schools before their marriage two and a half years ago. They are members of Our Lady of the Wayside church.

Legion to Hold Annual Armistice Day Dance

Merle Guild Post of the American Legion of Arlington Heights will hold its annual Armistice day dance November 14 at the Legion hall.

This is a traditional post social event and the public is invited. Music will be furnished by a local band and free food and beverages will be served. The home has been decorated recently for this affair.

Donations are $3.50 per couple, and for further information call Fred Hauth, Clearbrook 3-6709.

At the Hallowe'en costume party at the Legion hall, "Doc" Williams won the prize for the most original costume.

Distribution of the flag of the United States to scout troops and packs is an important item in the Americanism program of the Legion. For information write the Americanism Officer Robert Bishop, care of the local post.

The post invites all veterans to join. Meetings are held the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at the Legion hall.

CIRCLING THE TOWN

BY PHYLLIS KNIGHT

Local people can have a busy and varied Saturday this week if they choose to take in all the interesting events on the calendar. Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. the Newcomers' club is sponsoring a dessert luncheon at the Public Service company in Evanston, with admission costing $1.

As part of the program, the home service department of the company will present a demonstration on modern cooking. Several items demonstrated will be given away, and guests may sample the home economists' concoctions.

Bridge will be the main activity of the afternoon, however, with cake and coffee being on the menu.

'Waltz Dream'

In the early evening, the Arlington citizen may choose to visit the high school to see the music department's production of "A Waltz Dream." This operetta, to be presented in the new gym, revives of pleasant custom of a student program of this type. Operettas have not been given at Arlington for several years, and both students and public have missed them.

"A Waltz Dream" presents the usual romantic theme so popular in operettas and making love songs the most prominent musical numbers. A large number of students from all branches of the department will take part, with Fredrick Schmoyer, chairman of the music department, in overall charge.

The operetta begins at 8:15 p.m.

And A Dance, Too

To top off the evening Saturday, one may drop in at the annual Armistice day dance sponsored by the American Legion. These affairs always attract a crowd that enjoys a good time.

This year's dance will be held in the Legion hall, and refreshments will be available. Tickets may still be purchased at the door.

For The Schools

This is National Education Week. This year's theme — "Good Schools Are Your Responsibility" — gives everyone something to think about. Just what an individual can do alone to help improve his schools is hard to define.

He can, however, lend his support to school improvement programs and given serious consideration when requests are made for bond issues to build additional classrooms.

Local citizens are invited to become better acquainted with their schools by paying them a visit, especially during National Education week, but they are welcome any time during the year.

Bright Boy

When Jeff Marsh, seventh-grade son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Marsh, was home from school last week, he generated enough excitement in his family to last quite awhile.

He was watching the Arthur Godfrey morning television show when Arthur, in conversing with a bow and arrow manufacturer, expressed the opinion that you couldn't shoot a deer with bow and arrow from more than 20-30 yards. If any one disagreed, Arthur added, he could call the station collect and report the other side of the story.

Now Jeff had read in "Field and Stream" that it was possible to kill an antelope from 65 yards, so he walked to the phone, put in his call—reversing the charges—and almost immediately was connected with Godfrey's new orchestra leader. He had a nice chat, he reports, and Godfrey announced on the air that one Jeff Marsh in Arlington Heights, Illinois, had called in with a difference of opinion on the bow anl arrow subject.

Evening Book Club To Meet Monday

The Evening Book club of Arlington Heights will meet November 16 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Rowena Schimmel, 630 N. Belmont.

Co-hostess will be Mrs. Ethel Ward.

Mrs. E. J. Harris will review "My Uncle Louis" by Robert Fontaine. This is a gay book about a fabulous uncle who was introduced in the best seller, "Happy Time."

Bake Sale Saturday

The Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Episcopal church, Mount Prospect, will hold a bake sale at McMahon's Dry Goods Store, 27 W. Prospect ave., Mount Prospect, November 14 beginning at 9:30 a.m.

All proceeds will be given to the church building fund. (AM

'Ike' Made Honorary Member Of 7-4 Class At Junior High

The 7-4 class of the Arlington Heights Junior high wrote a letter to President Eisenhower October 10, to send him birthday greetings. They made him an honorary member of the class.

October 28 during the homeroom period the school secretary brought up a letter addressed personally to our 7-4 class from the President's personal secretary. Along with the letter the class received a large picture of the President seated at his desk. The President had signed the picture too.

Given Award

Patrick Kane, chief engineer at the Kraft foods company research laboratories in Glenview, received the company award for ten years of service Friday, Nov. 6.

Kane resides at Prairie and Lincoln, in Arlington Heights.

Hard Times Party Is November 21

Arlington Heights Junior Woman's club will present their annual hard times party November 21 at Arlington Country club starting at 9 p.m. Bob Koch and his orchestra will be featured.

This is the opportunity to get out those mates who do not like to dress up, as old clothes are the order of the night. Refreshments in the form of juicy ham sandwiches will be served, along with pretzels and potato chips, at all times during the evening.

Tickets at $2.50 a couple will be available at the door or may be purchased in advance from club members.

Two people will go home with turkeys. (AM

Solicitude: state of being anxious or concerned. "He showed a constant solicitude for his son's welfare."

Plaintive; expressive of sorrow or melancholy. "The melody was sweet and plaintive."

Barrington Church To Hold Bazaar

"Holly Days," the annual Christmas gift bazaar of St. Michael's Episcopal church, Barrington, will celebrate its third birthday November 20 and 21 at the new American Legion hall, N. Park, Barrington. Hours are 10:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Friday and 10:30 to 4 Saturday.

Dr. Topp to Speak on 'How Your Child Will Change' at PTA Meeting

The next meeting of the Arlington Heights Parent-Teacher association November 17, at the South school, will present an illustrious guest speaker in the person of Dr. Robert F. Topp, dean of the graduate school of the National College of Education, Evanston.

Speaking on the topic "How Your Child Will Change," Dr. Topp will show how a child's mental outlook undergoes transformation as he aprpoaches the years of adolescence. Dr. Topp's career brings him well prepared to cover every phase of youthful development. He has taught elementary schools in Genoa and Aurora; served as principal in Fort Morgan and Boulder, Colorado schools; was an assistant superintendent in the Boulder school system, and was assistant director of teacher education at the University of Illinois. Serving as a clinical psychologist in the army during World War II has added to the experience he can call upon for his many writings and lectures which have kept him popularly engaged in the years following.

Opening the meeting at 8:15 p.m. the colors will be presented by the patrol boys of North school, and after a short business meeting the music department of the Arlington Heights high school, under the direction of Fred Schmoyer, will present an instrumental program. Charles Turk will present a clarinet solo, Alec Catherwood will follow with a violin solo accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Robert H. Catherwood. A saxophone quartet, composed of Bruce Bydal, Alan Schack, Douglas Jerger, and Charles Watson will be the final musical number.

The first and fifth grade mothers of North school will serve refreshments in the cafeteria following the meeting.

Yule Gift Sale Is Wednesday

The ladies of Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will sponsor a Christmas gift sale November 18 at the parish hall, 431 S. State rd.

The usual items of hand work on fancy goods, knit gifts, aprons, toys, quilts and rugs will be available. The bakery booth will have a complete line of home made goodies.

A complete luncheon of barbecue, cake and coffee will be served beginning at 12:30 p. m. The sale will start at 1:30 p. m. There will be no charge for admission.

To Honor Arlington Man With PS Co.

Public Service company associates of Fred C. Utterback, 116 S. Pine st., Arlington Heights, will honor him Friday, November 13, as he celebrates his 30th anniversary with the utility.

Utterback has been associated with numerous gas department capacities with the utility since he began his career in the inspection department in Waukegan. Since then he has worked in Crystal Lake, Northbrook, Oak Park, Chicago, and since last year in Bellwood He is presently manager of industrial gas sales for the company.

A member of the First Methodist church, he is also a member and former chairman of the midwest industrial gas council.

The Utterbacks have a son, William, who is in the navy, and a daughter, Mary Jane, a student at the Chicago academy of fine arts.

East Indian Girl To Address Mothers' Club November 21

Miss Kumudini Mozumdar of East Bengal, India, who is in the United States as a crusade scholar studying at Garrett Biblical Institute in Evanston, will be the featured speaker when the Couples' club of the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights meets November 21.

The meeting will begin at 8 p. m. in the church.

Miss Mozumdar was born of Orthodox Hindu parents and educated in Hindu schools. Later she attended a mission school, where she was converted to the Christian faith. Her conversion made her an outcast in her native home and for five years she did not see her family.

Miss Mozumdar appears before her audiences in her native Indian dress. She is petite and charming and completely captivates all groups to whom she speaks.

St. James Parish Party

The Holy Name Society of St. James Catholic church, Arlington Heights, invites all parishioners to a parish social to be held in the school hall November 20 at 8:30 p.m. There will be entertainment and refreshments. Sixteen guests will receive gifts of cash and turkeys.

Lit[illegible]re, Drama Group To Meet

The literature and drama study group of the Arlington Heights Woman's club will meet at the home of Mrs. William Trude, 801 S. Dunton st., November 17 at 1:30 p.m.

At the start of the meeting the winners of last year's creative writing contest, Mrs. Fred Ainsley and Mrs. Max Hershey, will read their winning manuscripts. Members who are interested in entering this year as contestants should find this reading constructive.

The recording of Jose Ferrer's "Cyrano de Bergerac" will then be offered the membership by the chairman, Mrs. James A. Smith.

The co-hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. B. L. Corbett and Mrs. H. Paul Carstens.

YAC's Sadie Hawkins Dance Saturday Night

Sadie Hawkin's Day comes to Arlington Heights this Saturday as the YAC's hold their first big social event of the year, a Sadie Hawkin's barn dance.

A three-piece combo will provide music for square and ballroom dancing beginning at 8:30 in the gym of the First Methodist church. President Robert Snow has been working out some unusual decorations and refreshments for what promises to be a gala evening.

Tickets, at 75 cents stag and $1 per couple, will be available at the door and the public is welcome.

Mothers' Club

The Mothers' club of St. Peter Lutheran school, Arlington Heights, will meet November 13 at 7:15 p. m. in the new activity building.

This will be parents night and open house will be held at the school. The club will also conduct a towel shower for the lunch program.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

NATIONAL BOOK WEEK

It has been said that "Books are the food of youth." Let us think about this as National Book Week once more draws near. Even before children are ready for school, and long before they themselves can read, books are a necessary part of their lives. Being read to at an early age is a nourishment as vital as the food they eat. And, like the food they eat, it must be offered invitingly and with respect for variations in individual taste.

Now more than ever, there are scores of books within reach of our children. There are books to suit all ages and interests. Books on music, history, nature, astronomy—for the oldest.

THE FOLLOWING new books are now on display at the library, and will be available Monday, November 16:

"Seven Brave Companions," "Last Hurdle," "Tornado Jones," "Wild Dog," "Little Town on the Prairie," "Stars Over The Tent," "A Horse for General Lee," "Mystery of the Logging Camp," "Winona's Pony Cart," "Otis Spofford," "The Wonder World of Birds," "Earthworms," "Magellan," First Around the World; "Our Country America," a picture story of the United States.

"Treasure Beyond Red Mesa," "A Pony Worth His Salt," "The Magic Lake," "Indian Saddle Up," "The Fire Patrol." "Enchanted Island," "Freddy and the Space Ship," "Buckskin Scout," "Julie's Secret Sloth," "Peter Pocket and His Pickle Pup," "The Long Winter," "These Happy Golden Years," "By the Shores of Silver Lake," "Salome Goes to the Fair."

"Submarine," men and ships of the U.S. Submarine Fleet; "Ships of Our Navy," Carrier, battleships, destroyers, landing craft; "Air Drop," men, weapons, and cargo by parachute; "Danger Fighters," men and ships of the U.S. Coast Guard, the latter by C. B. Colby, associate, U.S. Naval Institute.

Winston adventure books including the following historical fiction: "Powder Keg," American Revolution, 1775; "Radar Commandos," World War II; "The Singing Wire," story of the Telegraph 1861; "The Stolen Train," war between the States 1865, and the following new biographies: "Good Queen Bess," "Pocahontas," "Kit Carson," "John Paul Jones," "Marco Polo," "Joan of Arc." "Daniel Boone," "Mark Twain," "Thomas Jefferson," "George Washington Carver," "Sam Houston, the Tallest Texan," "The Winter at Valley Forge," "The Erie Canal," "The First Overland Mail," "The Coming of the Mormons," "The Barbary Pirates," "Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo," "No School on Friday," "Sara's Lucky Harvest," "Make Way for Water," "All About Dinosaurs," "Brownie Makes the Headlines."

"The First Men in the World," "The Man Who Changed China," "King Arthur and His Knights," "Royal Canadian Mounted Police," "Joan of Arc," "Mary Queen of Scots," "Alexander the Great," "Adventures and Discoveries."

FOR THE SMALL fry: "The Loneliest Chicken," "Stick - in - the-Mud," "Zoo Babies," "Travelers Three," "Summer, Autumn, Winter and Spring Comes to Meadow Brook Farm," "Giant In The Midget League," "The Friendly Phoebe," "Linda Goes to the Hospital," "Petunia Takes a Trip," "101 Things for Little Folks To Do," "Cross-Country Bus Ride," "The Childhood of Jesus" and "The Story of Su-Su," "Mr. Grumpy and the Kitten," "The Quiet Mother and the Noisy Little Boy,"

Methodist Women Hold Mission Study Classes

A study group of the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights will meet November 17 at 10:30 a.m. at the church. Mrs. Florence Kule is the leader of this series of mission study classes based on the Home Missions Study Book, "Spanish Speaking People in the United States."

At this meeting the group will consider the second phase of the book—the Mexicans living in the United States.

The group will meet November 24 to discuss the Puerto Ricans.

Mrs. Kule's interest in missions and her thoroughness of preparation make these classes worth while for anyone interested in this Home Mission Study Book, which is being used by several denominations.

Christmas Club Checks From First Federal; 756 People Net $85,000

First Federal savings and loan association of Des Plaines is mailing Christmas club checks this week to 756 people in a total sum of $85,224.87. This amount represents a substantial increase over the 1952 club, both in members and the amount distributed.

A dividend is paid on funds deposited the first half of the year; payments are made every other week instead of weekly; payments can be made during the association's long and convenient hours—9:00 to 5:00 daily except Wednesday.

Mr. Plew stated the average check mailed was $112.00. Goal set for the 1953-54 club is 1000 members with a total of $110,000.00.

Favorites for Flavor

By LOIS SEILER

One of the favorite desserts in the Reino Bergstrom household is a delicious Grape Custard which Mrs. Bergstrom makes from her own homemade grape juice.

She is sharing with us her recipes for both the juice and the custard. The pure grape juice can also be used in making grape jelly.

The custard makes a very unusual and colorful dessert. Bright in color, it is most attractive when served in sherbert glasses and topped with whipped cream.

Tart in flavor, the custard is firm but not thick. Canned grape juice or cranberry juice can also be used in making this dessert, but the sugar, cornstarch and water must be varied accordingly.

The Bergstroms live at 1304 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights. They have three sons: Steven, 10; Don, 8, and James, 7. All of the boys attend the North school.

Grape Juice

The grapes should be picked over, washed and stems removed before putting them into preserving kettle.

Mash grapes and heat to boiling point. Cover and simmer for 30 minutes. Strain through heavy jelly bag overnight. Do not squeeze bag.

Place unsweetened juice in preserving kettle. Bring to boiling point and boil for five minutes.

Turn juice into sterilized jars and fill jars to one-half inch from top. Seal at once. This juice can be kept for a year or longer without spoiling.

Grape Custard

1 quart grape juice
1 quart water
1 cinnamon stick
12 tablespoons cornstarch
1 cup sugar

Bring to boiling point the juice, one-half quart water and cinnamon stick. Slowly add the cornstarch and sugar which have been thoroughly dissolved in the remaining water. Stir constantly for 8 to 10 minutes.

Cool custard and serve with milk, cream or whipped cream. Accompany with cookies.

CORRECTION

Sorry, one of the ingredients was omitted in the recipe for Cherry Pudding in last week's paper. Add 1 cup milk to list of ingredients for pudding.

Exports of coal from Hampton Roads, W. Va. declined 9 million tons in the first nine months of 1953 . . . Estimates agree that the cotton crop will be between 15 million and 15.5 million bales . . The April-to-April rise in households in the United States was 950,000, says the Census Bureau . . Inventories of manufacturers and wholesalers rose $100 million in August, all in perishable goods.

Town And Country Chorus To Give 'The Messiah'

The Town and Country chorus has issued invitations to members of church choirs and high school glee clubs to join their group in singing "The Messiah." This performance of Handel's oratorio will be given December 20 in Cutting hall, Palatine.

Weekly rehearsals are held Monday nights in the cafeteria of the Oak Street school at 8 p.m. It is imperative that all people desiring to sing on this occasion attend the four rehearsals preceding the performance. Therefore, anyone who wishes to join the group, is asked to call the director, Mrs. Dean, Palatine 436.

The Town and Country chorus was organized last year and quickly became known as an outstanding singing group. The chorus gave programs for many local civic and church organizations, as well as several out-of-town engagements.

The main events on this year's agenda are the "Messiah" and the annual spring concert. The group, however, will continue to give programs for benefits and group entertainment. These include specialty acts and solos.

Here is an opportunity for all singers who enjoy a variety of music, old and new. There are still a few vacancies in the men's sections. Anyone who loves to sing is urged to contact Mrs. Dean for full particulars. (B4

Two One-Act Plays To Be Given at Lutheran School November 20-22

The Walther League society, a young peoples group of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Hts., will present two one-act plays November 20 and November 22 at 8 p. m. in the Lutheran activity building.

"The Rising Flood," by Hans Josef Schmidt, is a dramatic play. Members of the cast are Judy Tubbs, Jerry Berg, Donald Gronert, Doris Rudolph, Clayton Bebber, Joe Horcher and William Gappert.

"Wilbur's Wild Night," by Donald Payton, is a farce in one act. Members of this cast include Ronald Thon, Karen Lacina, Audrey Gronert, Victor Grimm, Virginia Ruhnow, Myra Clausing, William Stade and Elwood Learson.

This is the fifth consecutive year this group has presented plays.

FFA Parents' Night Set for November 17

Parents and honorary members of the Future Farmers of America are invited to the annual FFA Parents' Night, November 17, at 8 o'clock in the cafeteria of Arlington Heights high school.

A varied program is planned, featuring a short demonstration business meeting by the chapter, color pictures of the members and their projects, and the initiation of this year's "green hands." Each of the latter will be presented his membership pen after the initiation ceremony.

William Cosman, president of the Vo-Ag Advisory Council, will receive the chapter's honorary degree. A gavel will be presented to Kenneth Allison, who was president a year ago.

A short comedy film made by the "Hoosier Hotshots" will be presented.

Bill Osmanski To Speak To 'Midgets' At Windup Rally

A football windup rally at the Arlington Heights Park District fieldhouse at 7:30 p.m. November 24, for the midget footballers and their dads, will feature Dr. William Osmanski, formerly All-American and All-Professional fullback, coach at Holy Cross and now a practicing dentist in Chicago, together with films of the Chicago Bears in action, Coach "Bus" Ormsbee announced yesterday.

The rally will wind up the Park District football program. Ormsbee, the Arlington high school varsity coach, who is in charge of the Park District midget football instruction program, stated he was highly pleased with the first season of the program and prophesied larger and more improved midget football next fall.

OSMANSKI IS a native of Providence, Rhode Island, and was captain of the football team at Holy Cross in 1938, where he also won letters in baseball and track. In 1939 he was named an All-American and was a member of the Chicago Tribune All-Star team and was voted the most valuable player in the 1939 All-Star game.

He joined the Chicago Bears in the fall of 1939 and was selected as the All-National football league fullback in his first year. He played on the great world championship football team of the Chicago Bears that defeated the Washington Redskins in the title playoff game by a score of 73 to 0 and scored the first touchdown of that game with a 70 yard run.

Osmanski entered the Navy in 1943 and took part in the action in the Pacific and was in the invasion of Okinawa. He returned to the Bears in 1946 when the Bears won their seventh world's championship. In 1947 he retired from active play to become head football coach at his alma mater, Holy Cross.

Jewel Sales Up

Jewel Tea Co., Inc. retail sales for the four weeks ended October 10, were 9.4% over the same weeks of 1952. Sales totaled $18,896,266 or $1,625,215 more than a year ago.

This is the 124th consecutive four week period for which a sales gain over the prior year has been reported.

Accumulated sales for the forty weeks ended October 10, 1953, totaled $182,260,993, a gain of 9.6% over sales of $166,246,300 a year ago.

Chaplain Dahl To Address Methodist Youth

Rev. Robert Dahl, chaplain of Wesley Memorial hospital, Chicago, and brother of Rev. Birger Dahl, pastor of the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights, will speak to the young people of the church November 15.

The Intermediate group will meet with Rev. Dahl at 4:30, and the Senior group, at 7:30.

His theme will be "What Shall We Do With Our Lives?" Rev. Robert Dahl was the former pastor at Union Avenue Methodist church, Des Moines, Iowa.

Turn-About Dance

The sophomore class of Arlington Heights high school will present a turn-about dance in the school cafeteria, November 21, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

This will be an informal affair, with the girls doing the asking instead of the boys.

Ticket, decoration, and band committees are hard at work with their preparations, and all expect to accomplish most of their work this week.

Gains Promotion With Illinois Bell

An Arlington Heights resident, Sidney R. Collis, was recently promoted to special services engineer at Illinois Bell telephone company's Chicago offices.

Upon graduation from Northwestern university in 1947, where he earned a B.S. in electrical engineering, Collis came to Illinois Bell as a station installer in Waukegan. Three months later he was appointed a frameman, and in December of that year became a PBX installer, there. Prior to his recent promotion, Collis was an engineer in the State Area Engineering Department, the job he was appointed to in 1948.

Collis is a veteran of World War II, having served in the army as a staff sergeant more than two years. He is a member of the American institute of electrical engineers, the American Legion, is a director and member of the executive committee of the national electronics conference, and also serves as a committee member of the radio technical commission for marine services at the group's meetings in Washington, D.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Collis, who reside at 1208 Stratford rd., Arlington Heights, have two children, Beth, 4; and Harding, 6.

In his spare moments, Collis enjoys hunting, fishing and gardening.

TV NEWS

by Don Hager

We've got a lot of brief TV news items in the pigeonholes of our desk this week. Let's clear them out . . . for instance, who says TV doesn't pay off? Youth Anna Maria Alberghetti unloosed her operatic pipes on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town" to the tune of $3500. Then she flew to Detroit to sing at a dinner given by the sponsor. Another $3500 . . .

Pianists are making headway on TV. NBC recently signed Natalie Hinderas, brilliant young concert pianist, to a TV talent contract. And Liberace not long ago signed for his 100th station to show his filmed series at the piano. That's a lot of TV stations . . . and a lot of sponsors!

James Mason, movie star, is preparing a TV series on psychic phenomena. Both NBC and CBS are reported interested . . . Actress Cathy Lewis, who dropped out of the Marie Wilson "My Friend Irma" series, may be back soon in a starring show of her own . . . Phil Harris will confine his TV appearances this year to guest shots. The reason? His beautiful wife, Alice Faye, doesn't want to go on TV . . . and who would sub for Alice opposite Phil? Some people just can't be separated . . . Neither can you separate the idea of utmost TV enjoyment from the sterling qualities found in the beautiful Dumont TV set. You'll want to own one as soon as you see it at, DON HAGER'S TV & APPLIANCE, 11 W. Davis St., Arlington Heights. Phone CL 2-0700.

IT'S TIME FOR A LITTLE HORSE SENSE

About today's so-called New Car "bargain sales" and "give-away" trade-in allowance offers

In recent weeks, there have been some strange goings-on in the retail automobile business.

There's a widespread 'fire sale" — "give-away" atmosphere about current automobile merchandising that we, as dealers, feel isn't doing anyone very much good.

It's reminiscent of a type of merchandising which we had hoped was buried and forgotten in these enlightened times.

So we'd like to review the situation.

Sure, we give big trade-in allowances

If anyone can give big trade-in allowances on a success basis, we Buick dealers certainly can—and do.

This year, Buick is again outselling all other cars except the three in the lowest price field. In quite a few areas, the score is better than that. Buick is topping all but two other cars in sales.

That's on the record. So you can see we have a legitimate reason for the big trade-in allowances we are able to offer today, at the end of a successful season.

But keep your eye on "the dollar difference"

What you get for your old car is only part of the story.

A lot of people have the idea that the only thing that counts, when they buy a new car, is the size of the trade-in allowance they can get for their old car.

So some dealers oblige by hiking the price of the cars they sell — and talking fancy trade-in figures for the cars turned in.

You simply pay more for the new car — get back the money, maybe, in your trade-in allowance.

Your real cost is "the dollar difference" — the money you put up, after the horse-trading is over.

Here's how to find a real bargain

Some cars give more for the money than others in any market.

All the important specifications for every car are published, and we'll be glad to show them to you for Buicks and any other car you have in mind. But just as an indication of what the figures will show, let's look at some handy yardsticks.

1. Horsepower. That has a lot to do with the way a car performs, the fun and pride you get from owning it.
2. Room - which has a lot to do with your comfort.
3. Tire Size. This is something people . . rarely check. But bigger tires give much longer mileage, which is important to your cost of operation - and they make every mile you ride more comfortable.
4. Pounds of weight. There's no substitute for adequate weight. Extra pounds of metal in a car give extra stability, extra durability, extra levelness to the ride. And heavier metal in the structural members of the frame and body means extra safety as well.

There are a lot of other specifications — and performance features, such as ride, handling, getaway. These you should try for yourself.

But on the basis of yardsticks already mentioned —

Here's How Buicks Measure Up

You get more room and power for the money in our lowest-priced four-door Sedan than you get in any other car on the market.

This car tips the scales at 3,710 pounds — hundreds of pounds more than a long list of cars at its price or higher.

This Buick has 7.60-15 tires — the biggest tires of any car at its price.

All Buicks sell at local delivered prices that have made them one of the outstanding successes of 1953.

This certainly is a good time to buy a new Buick — and a good time to get a big trade-in on your present car. But when you deal with us, we aim to give you a "treat" — not a "treatment."

So, if you're looking for a real bargain, come in and see us today.

Open Monday Through Friday Evenings

Marilyn Seegers Is Bride Of Max Nihart

In a candlelight, double ring ceremony held October 31 at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Mount Prospect, Miss Marilyn Elaine Seegers, daughter of Alfred Seegers, 504 S. Pine st., Mount Prospect, became the bride of Max Eugene Nihart, Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen M. Nihart, Mount Pleasant, Iowa.

Rev. J. E. A. Mueller officiated at the ceremony before an altar banked with baskets of gladioli and mums. Mrs. Donald Freitag, soloist, sang, "God Gave Me You," "Wedding Prayer," and "O Perfect Love" accompanied at the organ by Elmer Jackisch.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional satin gown with pearls and bugle beads highlighting the shoulders and fitted bodice. A low scoop neckline, tiny waist and wide span of unpressed pleats, ending in a cathedral train. The nylon French illusion finger tip veil was held in place by a coronation crown of seed beads and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley with a white orchid center. Ivy and orange blossoms decorated the streamers of the bouquet.

Mrs. Stanley Seegers, matron of honor, wore a lime peel velveteen strapless floor length gown with a chantilly lace bodice and unpressed pleats. She carried an American beauty satin fan with carnations and button mums.

Mrs. Doyle Moxley, Mount Pleasant, Iowa, and Mrs. Kenneth Sholz of Sharon, Wis., acted as bridesmaids and their American Beauty gowns were similar to that of the matron of honor, and they carried chartreuse satin fans with chartreuse carnations and button mums.

Glen J. Nihart, brother of the groom, acted as best man and ushers were Stanley Seegers of Mount Prospect and Doyle Moxley of Mount Pleasant, Iowa.

Miss Janis Johnson of Arlington Heights, acted as flower girl and she wore an emerald green velvet gown with taffeta hoop skirt with a nylon net overskirt.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the Mount Prospect Country club where a buffet dinner was served.

The couple are honeymooning in Miami, Fla., where they will be at home November 15.

The bride's going away outfit was a toast colored wool dressmaker suit with blending leather bag and pumps. Her hat was an off white colored tiny veiled hat and she wore a corsage of two white orchids from her wedding bouquet. Bak Photo

Jo Anne Hoffmann And Richard Nordstrom Wed

Candlelight and vases of mums and gladioli formed the setting for the wedding October 24 of Miss Jo Anne Hoffmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Mrs. John Hoffmann, Wheeling, and Robert Nordstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs Eric Nordstrom of Chicago.

Miss Bernice Winters sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Arthur Miller. The Community Presbyterian church of Wheeling was the scene of the wedding performed by Rev. William O. McGill at 6 o'clock.

The bride wore a satin and lace gown fashioned with a high lace neckline and a mandarin collar, long lace sleeves, a peplum and a chapel train. A halo cap held her fingertip length veil in place, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums and leaves with sliver sparkle.

Miss Janet Utpadel was the maid of honor, and Miss Joan Norling was the bridesmaid. Both attendants wore ballerina length gowns of peacock blue taffeta. They carried bouquets of yellow Chrysanthemums with gold sparkle and wore face veils.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hoffmann wore a Dior blue lace dress with a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a powder blue lace dress with a corsage of pink roses.

Charles French, cousin of the groom, was best man. John Hoffmann, brother of the bride, was the usher.

Immediately following the ceremony a buffet supper was served to 230 guests at the Amvets club in Wheeling.

The couple honeymooned at Merry Hill Lodge in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania and are now making their home at 8554 S. Laflin, Chicago.

Previous to her wedding the new bride was guest of honor at five bridal showers.

Announce Engagements

Kathryn Hottinger

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hottinger of Rand rd., Palatine, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn Ann, to Pvt. Robert Edwards, son of Mrs. Margaret Edwards, Hale st., Palatine.

Miss Hottinger is a secretary at Hart, Schaffner and Marx, while her fiance is with the U. S. army and is stationed in Virginia.

No plans have been made for the wedding.

Patricia Hunter

Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Hunter, Warren, O., announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Irene, to Robert E. Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman H. Schroeder of Palatine.

The wedding plans are indefinite.

Miss Hunter was graduated from Warren Harding high school and is a junior at Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill. Mr. Schroeder, a senior at Wheaton college, plans to enter Westminster Seminary, Philadelphia, next fall in preparation for the ministry.

Shirley Wagoner

The engagement of Miss Shirley Wagoner and Rodger MacArthur has been announced by her mother, Mary A. Wagoner, 45 S. Bothwell, Palatine. Mr. MacArthur is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodger MacArthur, 9852 E. Ellis ave., Chicago.

Miss Wagoner was graduated from Augustana hospital school of nursing in Chicago and later from Augustana college, Rock Island, Ill. Mr. MacArthur, a graduate of the engineering school at the University of Illinois, is with the Standard Oil Co. of Whiting, Ind.

The wedding will take place in February.

Joan Lingren

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Lingren, 15 N. Vail ave., Arlington Heights, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Joan Carole, to Douglas H. Gilman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Gilman, 409 Bristol lane, Arlington Heights.

Mr. Gilman was discharged from the airborne division of the armed forces September 17 after serving 26 months overseas. Both were graduated from Arlington Heights township high school.

The couple are planning a spring wedding.

Lucy Arnold, Ernest Heide Repeat Vows

(Bak Photo

In a double ring ceremony November 7, Miss Lucy A. Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Arnold, 338 N. Benton st., Palatine, became the bride of Ernest G. Heide, son of Mrs. Isabelle Heide, 308 N. Mozart st., Palatine.

Rev. Glenn G. Gumm officated at the ceremony held at 4:30 p.m. at St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed church. Erwin Kemnitz sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Harold P. Berg at the organ. Baskets of flowers formed the floral setting for the wedding.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin and chantilly lace fashioned with an Elizabethan neckline, long pointed sleeves and a long train. A beaded ivory satin headpiece held her fingertip length veil in place. The bride, given in marriage by her father, carried a colonial bouquet of white roses.

Miss Laverne Arnold served as her sister's maid of honor. She wore a yellow gown fashioned with a fitted taffeta bodice and full skirt of net over taffeta. She carried a colonial boquet of bronze bud mums.

Miss Ida May Heide of Palatine and Miss Jeanie Hill of Chicago were the bridesmaids, and they wore blue and lilac gowns identical in style to that worn by the maid of honor. They carried colonial boquets of yellow bud mums, and all the attendants wore hats of braided net.

Mrs. Arnold wore a navy blue nylon pleated dress and a corsage of white roses for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother wore a gray dress trimmed with black velvet and a corsage of white roses.

Bob Heide, brother of the groom, was best man. Don Oefelene of Roselle, Harry Arnold Jr. and Dave Arnold, brothers of the bride, and Bob Olson of Chicago were the ushers.

Following the ceremony dinner was served to 250 guests at the Rainbow Inn, Higgins and Roselle rds.

Following a honeymoon in Providence, R.I., and New York, the couple will make their home with the bride's parents until the groom leaves to enter the armed forces.

Phyllis Heinrich And George Maas Marry

St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran church, Mount Prospect, was the scene October 17 of the marriage of Miss Phyllis Heinrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Heinrich, 176 Rose st., Bensenville, and George Maas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maas of Arlington Heights.

Bouquets of pompons and palms formed the setting for the double ring ceremony. Rev. J. E. A. Mueller officiated at the candlelight ceremony held at 7:30 p.m. Miss Evelyn Baumgartner sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Elmer Jackisch at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of chantilly lace over satin. The gown was fashioned with a scoop neckline filled with a yoke of nylon tulle trimmed with chantilly lace flowers, long tapered sleeves and a fitted bodice which buttoned down the back and ended in a two yard train. A beaded satin lace cap held her fingertip length veil in place and she carried a bouquet of white pompons and stephanotis with a white orchid center.

Miss Marilyn Schulze of Bensenville was the maid of honor. She wore a yellow irridescent taffeta dress and carried a cascade bouquet of bronze pompons.

Miss Nancy Gaitsch and Miss Elaine Heinrich, both of Bensenville, were the bridesmaids. They wore nile green irridescent taffeta gowns and carried bouquet of yellow pompons.

The flower girls were Miss Kathy Lagerhausen and Miss Karen Sturn, cousins of the bride, who were dressed in rose irridescent taffeta and carried bouquets of yellow pompons.

Bill Morler of Des Plaines was best man. Thomas Detlefsen of Chicago, cousin of the groom, and Jim Luebking of Bensenville, friend of the groom, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Heinrich chose a beige lace dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow and bronze pompons. The groom's mother wore a light blue crepe dress and a corsage of yellow and white pompons.

Following the ceremony a reception for 500 guests was held at the Bensenville Firemen's hall and a buffet supper was served later in the evening.

The couple honeymooned at Niagara Falls and are now making their home with the bride's parents.

The groom is employed at the Arlington Carbonated Beverage Co. and the bride is employed by the Village News Agency in Bensenville. Bak Photo

Catholic High Club To Meet

The Heights Catholic High club will meet November 17 at St. James Catholic school, Arlington Heights, at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Alfred Martin, dermatologist of the Alfred Martin Hairdressing Salon, will speak to the girls on "Personal Grooming." Her talk will cover the care of the skin and proper application of cosmetics. "Miss Bea," as she is better known in Arlington Heights, will also give teen-agers valuable tips on personal hygiene.

Members of the club voted to collect used toys to repair and paint. They plan to have a Christmas party for orphans and present the toys to them.

Germaine Heer Is Now Mrs. R. McNamara

(Master Photo

Rev. Thomas J. O'Brien officiated at the wedding of Miss Germaine Heer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Erwin Heer, 317 N Russell st., Mount Prospect, and Richard McNamara, son of Mrs. Mary McNamara, Chicago, recently.

The wedding took place at St Raymond's Catholic church Mount Prospect.

For her wedding the bride wore a traditional white satin gown fashioned with a chantilly lace bodice and an insert of pleated nylon tulle over satin. A white beaded crown held her fingertip length veil in place and she carried a crescent bouquet of white gladioli with a white orchid center.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Martin Gerhardt of Chicago, who wore a gown of light blue taffeta with a heart shaped neckline. She carried a crescent bouquet of pink roses and wore a fitted headpiece.

Miss Jeanne Heer of Park Ridge and Miss Carol Dinschel were the bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor.

Thomas Lockic of Chicago was best man and the ushers were Thomas Heer of Palatine and Emil Oboikovitz of Chicago.

The bride's mother wore a deep blue dress with beige accessories, and the groom's mother wore a plum dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of baby orchids.

An afternoon reception was held at the Tally Ho Inn, Park Ridge, for 100 guests.

Mr. McNamara and his bride honeymooned at Miami Beach, Fla., and are now living in Chicago.

Rev. And Mrs. Mueller Mark 40th Anniversary

(Community Camera

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. A. Mueller celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary November 5 at a dinner and reception held at St. Paul Lutheran school, Mount Prospect. Rev. Mueller is pastor of St. Paul Lutheran church.

Rev. and Mrs. Mueller were the first couple married at St. Paul church. Rev. Mueller's father, also John Ernst August Mueller, who was then pastor of St. Luke Evangelical Lutheran church, Chicago, officiated at the couple's marriage.

Rev. and Mrs. Mueller, recipients of many thoughtful gestures from members of their congregation where Rev. Mueller has been the pastor all these years, celebrated their anniversary trying to return the kindnesses shown them with a party for 200 people. They entertained members of their families, close friends and representatives of the various church organizations.

The couple's three children, Mrs. Fred Mosiman, Jack and George Mueller, and six grandchildren were on hand for the party at which Rev. Wilbur C. Koester, now assistant pastor of the church, served as master of ceremonies.

Before the turkey dinner served by the Ladies Aid of the church, the assembly sang and listened to a short talk by Rev. Koester, and following dinner Alvin Hedke, president of the church's congregation, made a few congratulatory remarks after which Mr. Jackisch entertained on the piano and Mrs. Donald Freitag sang.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Anna Mueller of Waverly, Mo., and Mrs. Rudy Coulon of Charleston, Ill.

Concordia Chorus Gives Concert Fri.

Concordia college Male chorus of Milwaukee will present a sacred concert in Arlington

STANLEY STEPHAN

Heights November 13 at 8:15 p.m. Harold E. Albers of Milwaukee is director of the chorus.

Stanley Stephan, son of Rev and Mrs. L. V. Stephan and a senior at Concordia, is a member of the chorus and will sing with the group in Arlington Heights.

The chorus, consisting of 45 tour choir members, will open its concert with a well-known church hymn, "Now Thank We All Our God" by Mendelssohn The concert will feature a series of numbers surveying the church year. The first selection will be "O Savior, Open Heaven Wide" by Brahms. Featured among the Christmas anthems is Bach's "Sicut Locutus Est" from the Magnificat. "Glory to God" by Lotti and "Ach Wie Fluechtig," a Bach chorale, complete this section.

The second part of the program brings an inspiring number, "Lord Jesus Thou Art Going Forth" by Nachtenhoefer. The chorus will also render the powerful "Cum Sancto Spiritu" from Bach's Mass in B-minor. Other numbers in this part include the familiar hymn "All Glory Be to God on High" by Decius and "Lord of the Living Harvest" by Arcadelt.

Through the years, the chorus has received warm praise from critics in Detroit, Chicago, and other midwestern cities.

Arlington Couple Wed 60 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Held, 102 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, observed their sixtieth wedding anniversary Wednesday.

They were both born in Germany and were married in Hanover November 11, 1893. They came to the United States, settling in Arlington Heights in 1912. For many years Mr. Held operated a rented farm, later working on the farm for the Lutheran home. After he retired from farming he served as a night watchman for Creamery Package Mfg. Co. for 12 years.

The Helds have three children, all of whom reside in Arlington Heights. Two are sons, George and Carl, and one a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Sisse. They have nine grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

One of the highlights of the Held's anniversary was a cablegram from Mr. Held's brother, Wilhelm and wife, Gusta, who live in Germany, congratulating them on the occasion. The Helds went to Germany in 1951 when they had an opportunity to visit his five brothers and their families, as well as some of Mrs. Held's relatives.

Marilyn Knickrehm Is Bride Of Roger Meyer

St. Paul Lutheran church, Melrose Park, was the scene of the wedding October 17 of Miss Marilyn Anne Knickrehm of Melrose Park and Roger Robert Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Meyer of Palatine.

Rev. Paul L. Kluender who had baptized and confirmed the bride, officiated at the 3 o'clock ceremony.

A. E. Doering, who at one time was the bride's school teacher, played the organ accompanying the bridal procession with Handel's "Largo" switching to the "Wedding March" when the bride appeared. Miss Bette Witte of Chicago sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple stood at the altar.

The bride wore a floor-length bouffant gown of white lace-trimmed net over ivory satin and a fingertip length veil of silk tulle flowing from a headband of pleated tulle trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Betty Flaharty of Milwaukee, cousin of the bride, was the matron of honor. Miss Florence Bohne of Palatine, cousin of the groom, and Miss Rose Marie Sidor of Elmwood Park were the bridesmaids. All the attendants wore irridescent rose gowns with bouffant skirts and bodices arranged with interlacing pleats. They carried shower bouquets of deep pink carnations. The matron of honor also had white mums in her bouquet.

The flower girl, Karen Boege of Bellwood, wore a pale blue dotted net dress and carried a miniature bouquet resembling those of the attendants.

Willis Heide was best man. Ed Organ Jr. of Chicago and Donald Knickrehm, brother of the bride, were the ushers.

Another brother, Lawrence L. Knickrehm, recently returned from service in Japan, escorted his sister to the altar.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose lace dress with brown accessories and a corsage of white mums. The groom's mother wore a teal blue crepe dress with brown accessories and a corsage of white mums.

A turkey dinner was served at 5:30 p.m. to the bridal party and families at Bulger Memorial hall. Following the dinner a reception was held for 250 guests.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Spanhake of Wisconsin and Mr. and Mrs Earl H. Flaharty of Jackson, Miss., cousins of the bride, and Dick Flaharty of Milwaukee.

The couple honeymooned in Florida and are now making their home with Mr. Meyer's parents in Palatine.

Mark Anniversary At Open House

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Walsh of Chicago will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary November 15 at the home of their daughter, Mrs Frank Koch, 602 E. Central rd. Arlington Heights.

Open house will begin at 3 p.m., and all friends and relatives of the couple are invited.

Women's Clubs To Hold Tea, Tour Park Ridge School For Girls

Members of seventh district Illinois Federation of Women's clubs are looking forward to the annual tour, tea and jelly shower at Park Ridge School for Girls November 18 at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. C. H. Cooper, 209 George st., Mount Prospect, seventh district chairman, has planned this afternoon for members and guests to acquaint them with this worthwhile project.

At this time club women bring glasses of jelly for mealtime use of the girls and tour the different cottages and class rooms to see where and how the girls live and receive their vocational training.

Park Ridge School for Girls is a member of the Welfare council of metropolitan Chicago and the Social Service exchange, and is licensed by the Division of Child Welfare of the Illinois department of Public Welfare. It receives a certificate of recognition from the superintendent of public instruction of the state of Illinois as a three year accredited high school. The school is built around the needs and care of adolescent girls, who have no one else responsible for their behavior and is non-sectarian.

In 1914, Illinois Cottage was built and the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs assumed the responsibility of maintenance for all time, and contributes $3,000 annually for operating expenses of cottage, besides sending gifts at Christmas time and birthdays, and the purchasing of needed equipment.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

To live in the flesh is to live in bondage; to live in the Spirit is to realize mental and physical freedom. The way to obtain this liberation will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 15. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be MORTALS AND IMMORTALS.

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (15:49) "As we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly."

Lesson-Sermon passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"This I say therefore . . . That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; And be ye renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness" (Eph. 4:17, 22-24).

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual, — they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite, — in order that sin and mortality may be put off . . . Mortals can never know the infinite, until they throw off the old man and reach the spiritual image and likeness (pp. 265,519).

Leslie Bell Singers To Give Concert Sunday Night

The second of five concerts given for the membership of the Arlington Heights Community Concert association will be held the evening of November 15 at the Arlington Heights high school.

The Leslie Bell Singers, beloved by radio listeners throughout the United States and Canada, under the direction of Dr. Leslie R. Bell, are making their third concert tour of the United States. American audiences know the Bell singers, an all-girl ensemble of 35 voices, through their weekly radio broadcast from Canada by the Canadian General Electric company.

In the eight years since the choir has grown to national recognition the requirements of membership remain the same: Leslie Bell wants pretty girls who have good voices. He prefers to get good, natural voices and train them in his own style.

When the conductor hears a rendition that seems to leave little to criticize, he remarks that it is "not good, but it's loud," which is about as far as he goes in praise. But a few minutes later he concludes, "You'll probably have it right in a few years."

Such attacks, rather than making the girls angry and rebellious, have a strange opposite effect. They know in their hearts that he doesn't mean it, and every barb seems to increase their loyalty to their sharp-tongued, demanding conductor.

To be a member of the Bell singers is so prized a privilege that even the waiting list has a waiting list. More than 200 prospective singers are now hoping to get on that second roster.

Recently they had to turn down an extended appearance at New York's Radio City Music Hall because of previous commitments.

This choral group offers the membership of the Community Concert association one of the finest evenings of enjoyment that it is possible to have.

Not only are the girls beautiful and wonderfully dressed, but their various types of renditions are a remarkable art developed by a task master and yet a remarkable and beloved Dr. Leslie Bell.

It was impossible to schedule this concert any other time in the year except November 15 if this fine group was to appear in Arlington Heights.

It is unfortunate that the first two concerts are on succeeding Sundays but it was impossible any other way. Doors open at 7:30 p.m. and the concert begins at 8:15

Posting The Guard

by SGT. BOB SCHAFFER

I have often been asked, "How is it that a young man of your age can remain at home during these times of 'Police Actions' and draft calls?" I always politely reply ,"I am a member of the national guard."

As a rule, most people cannot understand why I can remain at home while their sons are being drafted left and right. It is a general feeling. Because of this, I would like to show those particular people the reason why.

NATIONAL GUARD, like any other organization, has an aim or mission. It is responsible to the people for the successful execution of the following mission:

"To provide a reserve component of the army and air force of the United States, capable of immediate expansion to war strength, able to furnish units fit for service anywhere in the world, trained and equipped:

a. To defend critical areas of the United States against land, sea or airborne invasion.

b. To assist in covering the mobilization and concentration of the remainder of the reserve forces.

c. To participate by units in all types of operations, including the offensive, either in the United States or overseas."

ASIDE FROM the duties outlined in its mission the national guard is always on call when local disaster strikes. Mercy missions are nothing new to the guard for when disaster does strike they are always among the first to pitch in and help. Guardsmen have manned dykes in floods, flown food and medicine to stricken communities such as the Texas City Disaster, dropped hay and food in the midwest when icy blizzards cut them off from outside help.

Invasion from a foreign source, today is more possible than at any other time in our history. With this in mind, the 228th infantry regiment, 33rd infantry division, Illinois national guard, has located each of nearly twenty armories in a position of strategic importance to each community. The armories are always near a railroad, if one is present.

ANOTHER FACTOR TO consider about the "guard question" is the men themselves. The national guard could be a veritable "draft dodgers paradise," but it is not. Honest and faithful service is demanded of the guardsmen. A guardsman is bound by severe draft and reserve laws.

If a man doesn't attend scheduled drills as required, he is immediately stripped of his temporary draft exemption and very promptly drafted. Sickness, substantiated by a doctor's certificate, is the only excuse for absence from meetings. Here again, the National Guard maintains its high standards by commanding a better class of men to work with.

Arlington Heights Growth Brings Former Realty Man Back Home

Don Florence, who has again joined the Willson & Florence realty firm, Arlington Heights, admits that after a recent visit to his old home town, it did not take much persuasion to get him to turn over the care of his purebred Angus cattle on his Virginia farm to his son, Richard.

"The real estate possibilities in the Arlington area are to great to resist," says Don. He adds, "the home building is staging 'a runaway' and Arlington's greatest need is business development."

Mrs. Florence enjoys her Virginia home, but will divide her time between there and Arlington Heights. Don is looking forward to renewal of his friendly relations with the people of Arlington Heights, and hopes they will feel free to drop into the office at any time.

Words & Music

by Erica Floyd

VIRTUOSI DI ROMA

The Virtuosi Di Roma, with Maestro Renato Fesano conducting, paid their first visit to Arlington Heights Sunday night, inaugrating the current Community Concert season with a concert of music of the early masters, music of patrician quality, music off the beaten path, music of spirited character and abundant charm, of flawless technic, of studied ensemble and great restraint.

This group of 14 Italian artists, each a soloist in his own right, sat down to their music after briefly acknowledging the applause of their audience, and proceeded to make chamber music as if naught else mattered but the recreation of the music of the early masters. And early masters they were,—music of Marcello, Vivaldi, Cambini and Rossini,—early teachers of their native Italy; men who wrote a flood of music for instruments of their day. Vivaldi alone is credited with some 80 odd violin concertos in manuscript and 38 operas as a starter; Cambrini wrote 60 symphonies and 150 quartettes, which Bach liked so well that some of his tunes are recognizable in the later works; Marcello, a poet and lawyer as well as a musician of the 1711 era, well, you just open the archives and the scores roll out like sand from the hourglass.

Maestro Fasano was a conductor sparing with gestures, yet the results are both crisp and liquid, touching the heart, especially when those two luscious cellos speak forth with an accompaniment of two rich violas, six mellow violins and a string bass that emits a full, round tone, rather than a growl and a grunt as many of the modern school give forth.

It was an evening of allegros and rondos, divided with an almost impreceptible bridge of sound in the form of a slow movement. Renato Zanfrini with an impeccable oboe spoke for the Vivaldi Concerto in D minor; Renzo Sabatini for the seven stringed viola d'amore, with its seven steel harmonic strings underneath and the beautiful carving of a feminine head on the scroll of the instrument; Guido Mozzato and Benedetto Mazzacurato with a violin and cello that were equals on all counts, fairly breathing a solo aria, yet having the bite of crispness needed for Vivaldi's third movement of the B flat concerto for these two instruments and strings; Carlo Vidusso's piano was just right for Cambini's ornamentation, as was also his harpsichord with the ensemble. Then again, Luigi Ferro with the E major concerto, proving that any member of the ensemble could be soloist on occasion, yet join the ranks for a breath-taking performance with the other dozen.

This was pure music, of fugue, counterpoint and double fugue, worked out with painstaking care and exactness, of clear line and melody, enriched with embellishments and figurations that the later Mozart used to such effect, that Haydn sprinkled through his scores like seasoning on a plum pudding. This was music as only devoted musicians can produce, or students of music appreciate; artists that get together once in a life-time and sacrifice all for their chosen field of work.

Italy can be proud to call them her own, and we in turn can say a thank you for having had the privilege of their company and artistry for an all too short evening.

'THE CURIOUS SAVAGE'

Occasionally an amateur group puts on a show that looks professional from "every" angle and such was the case of the Palatine Players production, "The Curious Savage," presented last Friday and Saturday night.

The curtain opened on one of the most eye-catching sets we've seen an amateur group construct. The colors used added a warm glow to the stage and a huge window of "artistic wrought iron" looked like the real McCoy.

Not till one sees what correct lighting can accomplish does one realize what an important part it can play in the success of a show. The newly installed lighting system created an illusion during the final scene of the play that was positively breath-taking. It might be called the "whipped cream topping on an already delightful dessert." Credit for the lighting goes to Marty Bodelson.

The entire cast did a superb job, but a special mention must be given Gladys Kuhn for her portrayal of "Fairy-May." It was an outstanding piece of acting and we don't think Broadway could have produced a better Fairy-May.

Mary Francis Cormier deserves much credit for the direction of the cast, aided by Bill Connon, assistant director. Verna Jumps, technical advisor, and Brooks Ambos, stage manager, and the entire behind scenes crews must have worked hard to produce such a successful play and they all deserve a good round of applause for a job well done.

Guild Enjoys Busy Season

Members of St. Catherine's guild of St. John's Episcopal church, Mount Prospect, met recently at the home of Mrs. Walter E. Connell in Arlington Heights.

New members present at this meeting were Mrs. C. B. Crain and Mrs. Ralph Fitzsimonds, both of Arlington Heights, and Mrs. William Lefft of Mount Prospect.

Proceeds from the fall luncheon and fashion show held at the Saddle and Cycle club have been presented to the vestry for the church building fund.

St. Ann's and St. Catherine's guild recently purchased a record player for the youth groups of the church. For the present time St. Catherine's guild has underwritten expenses for James Maunch, seminarian, youth director.

An invitation was extended by the Evening guild to participate in the Christmas sale November 18 at the Mount Prospect village hall.

A luncheon gathering was recently held at Honey Bear Farm, and members of the guild planned their Christmas sale booth, Mrs. William Plambeck and Mrs. Walter Belcher have opened their home to members for informal work day for the booth.

Chairmen recently appointed by Mrs. Robert E. Rohner, president, are Mrs. Forrest E. Blose, UTO, Mrs. James E. Good, membership, and Mrs. Douglas Gutzman, ticket chairman for the Thanksgiving ball.

Elk Grove Home Bureau

Elk Grove Unit of Cook county Home Bureau will hold a craft day November 12 at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Elmer Schoppe, Higgins rd.

The group will hold their next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Busse, Mount Prospect, November 23 at 1 p.m.

The home of Mrs. Henry Wille was the scene of the October 28 meeting. Co-hostesses were Mrs. LeRoy Hattendorf, Mrs. Noel Foss and Mrs. George Henricks.

The major lesson on "The Care of Ear, Nose, Mouth and Throat" was given by Mrs. Marvin Busse and Mrs. John Wetterman. (B4

Evening Guild Christmas Sale

The regular monthly meeting of the Evening guild of St. John Episcopal church, Mount Prospect, will be devoted to a Christmas sale. The Mount Prospect village hall has been reserved for the affair, which will begin at 8 p.m. November 18.

The other guilds of St. John's have been invited to set up booths, and it is expected that a variety of attractive articles suitable for Christmas giving will be available.

The ladies of St. John's are urged to come and bring their neighbors and friends. Refreshments will be served by a committee headed by Miss Margaret Johnston, assisted by Mrs. James Baker, Mrs. Kenneth Eade, Mrs. Kenneth Kirchner, Mrs. Eldon Robson and Mrs. R. A. Rosholt.

There will be no program, only a short business session, so that everyone will have time to make their purchases and to enjoy a social hour with friends.

Tickets for the Evening guild's third annual Thanksgiving ball are out, and may be secured from Mrs. R. C. DeZur of Arlington Heights or Mrs. Joseph H. Vavra of Mount Prospect. The dance will be November 27 at the Elmhurst Country club. Tickets are $4 a couple, and formal dress is optional. am

Mrs. Stanley Luczak CLearbrook 3-6346

Forest View School

Steve Feifar and Lewis Feifar spent the week end in Carlisle, Ind. visiting relatives.

Stanton Petry flew to New York on a business trip. He spent a week there, but was delayed a day in returning because of the bad snow storm in New York.

The Al Juhnkes had Sunday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Otto.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Weber were Sunday dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Prasnikar.

Attend funeral in New York

Stanley Luczak, accompanied by his brother, Casimer Luczak, sister and brother-in-lw, Mr. and Mrs. William Malecke, and his sister, Mrs. John Phol, drove to Sherrill, N.Y., last week to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law, Stanley Jackson. They spent several days there, visiting places and people they hadn't seen in 22 years. As a young boy, Stan Luczak lived on a farm in Boonville, N.Y., which is a short distance from Sherrill.

Sunday visitors at the Willard Consoers were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Christensen and family of Des Plaines.

Ernest Tagge attended an insurance sales meeting at the Baker hotel, St. Charles, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burton celebrated Mrs. Burton's birthday November 5 by seeing the movie "The Robe." After the movie, they enjoyed supper at Henrici's.

Luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mueller, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. William Bawn, and son, Billie, Chicago. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mayerboch and children, Bud and Sally, came to visit.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Coan, Whitewater, Wis., parents of Mrs. Stanton Petry, spent a 3 day week end visiting the Petry family.

Sunday Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Jevne, and sons, David and Rickie, visited Mr. Jevne's aunt, Miss Grace Jevne, of Oak Park for Sunday dinner.

Sunday guests at the George Sidors were Mrs. Marie Abel, and her daughter, Elaine, Mrs. Leona Tyler, and her son, Allen, and Mrs. Sidor's father, John Wojtalewicz, and her sister, Genevieve.

Happy Birthday

Michael Merritt celebrated his first birthday November 7. His guests were Tom Merritt and Susan and Jimmie, Mrs. Peggy Comes and Gregory, Mrs. Joseph Mueller and Joe, Stephen and Mary Lou, Mrs. Fred Gorr and Dickie, Mrs. Charles P. Jevne and David and Rickie, Maureen and Shannon Sullivan, and Patty and Bobbie Ayres.

Attend Dinner Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Luzcak and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Luczak attended the 8th annual banquet and dinner dance of the mason contractors' association November 7 at the Sherman hotel. The Hawaiian settings and decorations were through the courtesy of United Air Lines. Each guest was presented with a lei—the men's were artificial, but the ladies' were of fresh orchids flown from Hawaii for the party. Table decorations were fresh pineapple centerpieces and artificial leis. A delightful floor show followed the dinner. The star of the show was a genuine Hawaiian hula dancer, who was accompanied by her native orchestra.

Ways and Means Chairman Selected

The monthly meeting of the Forest View Mothers' club was held November 3, and was attended by 21 members. Mrs. Hartman volunteered to be social and ways and means chairman. She had been given the authority to select a committee, and to plan activity programs.

The Board of Directors of Forest View school will hold its regular monthly meeting at 8 p.m. at the school hall. All interested persons are welcome to attend.

Results of Subscription Campaign

The results of the Forest View school Paddock subscription campaign are as follows: 25 new subscriptions were sold by the pupils, and 21 renewals were turned in to Paddocks. A credit of $1 was received for each new subscription, and a 50 cent credit for each renewal, totaling $35.50, plus $5 given by Mr. Paddock for selling 25 new subscriptions, making the net total received $40.50. This money was turned over to Mrs. McKown, the teacher, and to the student council, to use for the school. Winners of the contest are: First place, Sharon Luczak, a $3 prize for selling 8 new subscriptions and 5 renewals; Second place Ted Robinson, a $2 prize for selling 2 new subscriptions and 6 renewals; Third place, Ronald Sundblad, $1 prize for selling 3 new subscriptions and 3 renewals.

The Forest View Mothers' club awarded the prizes, and they wish to thank all the winners and all who participated in the contest for their efforts. They also hope the students enjoy planning for whatever they decide to purchase as much as they did selling the subscriptions.

Attends Alumni Dinner

Norman A. Newlands, Chicago, and his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Nitz, Elk Grove rd., attended the annual alumni reunion dinner of Wueens university, Kingston, Canada. The dinner was held at the Union league club, Chicago Saturday. Grandma Newlands acted as baby sitter for Linda Ann Nitz.

Tuesday afternoon visitors at the Tom Sullivans were Mrs. Fran Arient, and her daughter, Mrs. Roy Beening, and Miss Bea Henrick. Saturday evening the Sullivans' guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Holahan, S. State rd., who presented the Sullivan children with 5 muscovy ducks.

Correction

A error was made in last week's column stating Mr. and Mrs. James Burton moved to Danville. It should have read motored to Danville. We're sorry it happened.

Demonstrates Safety Devices for Trampoline

Gaylord Hughes, gymnastics coach at Arlington Heights high school, gave the demonstration of the use of safety equipment on the trampoline at the Midwest Gymnastics association coaches clinic, Saturday at Loyola Park in Chicago.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

By William O. McGill

If a judge who deals with delinquent boys thinks that the Protestant churches ought to wake up to their responsibilities, we might ask to what they might awaken and how might they go about it. As we suggested a week ago, this remark about awakening was made to Lennart Cedarleaf, Protestant chaplain at the St. Charles School for Boys.

Whence does the problem arise for Protestants? In an average hundred boys at St. Charles, there will be about 33 Roman Catholics and about 66 Protestants, the last boy may be a Jew, a Moslem, a Buddhist, or something else. Of the 66 Protestant boys, there will be about 20 to 30 who are "Protestant" because they are neither Roman Catholic nor Jewish, nor anything else. Most of these will be white Protestants. About half of them will be Negro Protestants, mostly Baptist.

"AHA," SAYS someone, "that proves it." What it proves is difficult to say. It probably is no more significant than would be the number of Italian-sounding names among the Roman Catholic boys. Surely it pales in significance when compared with the fact that there are less repeaters and returnees among the Negro boys than among others.

There are several possible developments, and this is why the judge thinks Protestants ought to wake up. The real significance, if there is any, in delinquent figures is not in the population at St. Charles but in the intake at Boys' Court, or other courts. The first effort with juvenile offenders is to see whether parents have been lax and will assume their responsibility more seriously. A second effort is to see that a responsible guidance agency stands behind him.

The Roman church is much better fitted for this than any other. A boy may be moved into a school where rehabilitation will move forward much more rapidly than at home. Much todo was raised about Heirens, for example, who was entered in a parochial boarding school rather than a state institution. But the fussing failed to recognize that thousands of boys have been helped by the same process.

The Protestants, on this front, are at a disadvantage in their more restricted program of private secondary schools.

Through the church federation, Protestants have maintained some case work service at boys court and in auto court for some years. But the case load has always been considerably heavier than the staff could handle. The federation has never been able to take advantage of the opportunities involved in those who are classed as "Protestant" because they aren't anything else.

THROUGH the church federation, the Presbyterians pay half of the chaplain's salary at St. Charles; the state pays the other half. (Other churches share in the maintenance of chaplaincies in other public institutions. This ministry has been developed in the past decade; it has been a great step forward.)

So long as there are responsible agencies who will be guiding friends to boys in trouble, no first-time offender will go to St. Charles; and it is not likely that any boy after a short stay will return if he has guidance and encouragement, unless he belongs to a small group of persons who are seemingly defective in their character make-up.

But, until Protestants awaken to the fact that the Kingdom is not built in the hearts of men and women who spend $100 on the local church building, $50 on the local church program, and $13 on the whole mission of the church beyond the local institution, there is not likely to be any real impact on the building of character in our young people. By our examples we contribute neither to the character of local youth, nor to the guidance of character of youth in other communities.

Hagenbring's will bring toyland into your living room this Christmas, for they have all the toys that mean Christmas to every little boy and girl. Little folks will have big fun with the Thayer strollers and carriages that are authentic copies of the large sizes. There are seven different types, one of which even has station wagon sides.

For the younger members of the family there are Brio toys made in Sweden. These toys are all beautifully made in hand finished wood. As you pull the train, the engineer pops his head up and down. At Hagenbring's you'll also find a full line of Fisher-Price pull toys.

There's even a stroller for mommy's little helper and it's just like those used in the grocery store, for there's a place for her doll and all her groceries. The stroller is priced at $4.98.

There are dolls to dress and dolls to adore at Hagenbring's. There's the yes and no doll and another one whose knees bend so that she can sit just like her owner, and these are just two out of a selection of more than 200 dolls.

Karstens-Helbig Jewelers, 7 S. Dunton ave., are announcing that this is the last week that they will give a $10 trade-in on your old watch toward the purchase of a new one. No matter what condition your watch is in, you'll get this allowance on the purchase of a brand new one.

And at this same store you can determine your own discount on gifts of $5 or more by just looking in their window. You better look, for you have to tell them that you saw this offer in the window.

Besides the advantage of all these pre-Christmas specialities, you'll find an unusual, distinctive selection of stone set jewelry at Karstens-Helbig Jewelers. Included are lipstick cases, combs, evening bags, compacts and cigarette cases.

There's nothing that's quite so fascinating to most women than a bottle of good French imported perfume. At Arlington Heights Pharmacy, 25 W. Davis st., you'll find one of the most complete selections of imported perfumes in this area. For instance they carry the Guerlain line, which includes the famous Chalimar scent, and the Lanvin line, which includes such enticing scents as Arpege, My Sin and Pretexte. Arlington Heights Pharmacy also carries a complete selection of Coty and Helena Rubinstein perfumes and colognes. They have the Angelique line which includes Black, Gold and White satin. For the younger set you'll find a complete selection of Little Lady toiletries, which she can call her very own. And remember you can use the lay away plan at Arlington Heights Pharmacy.

Everybody loves games and toys for Christmas and you'll find what you're looking for at the Bounty Fair on Northwest hwy. in Palatine. The Bounty Fair features Vogue Dolls that are available separately or with a suitcase full of clothes. The clothes for these dolls can even be bought separately at a later time. There are also washable, cuddly foam rubber elephants and horses for the little ones. In the games and handicraft department you'll find Picture Craft, a new idea in art which enables the amateur to paint in oils by number. Shirley Shanklin also has two types of frames for these oils which require no experience, no lessons and no mixing. The set is priced at $2.98. The toys are priced from $1.

Among the array of wonderful Christmas gifts are many items for grab bags and thoughtful little remembrances priced at $1.

For a gift of lasting beauty for the discriminating woman stop at Aunt Pansy's the House with the Red Door, 115 N. Dunton ave. Here you'll find a complete selection of Delft ware imported from Holland. These collectors' items are available in the old, old colors of Delft . . . blue and white, green and white and a rosy red and white. There are candlesticks, jam jars, pitchers, framed tiles and many other miscellaneous pieces to choose from. This china makes a wonderful thoughtful remembrance for Christmas giving.

Congresswoman Church Leaves for Far East

Representative Marguerite Stitt Church, (Rep. 13th Ill.), having just completed an intensive ninety day program in which she made a close survey of District needs and spoke to over 100 groups left Monday for the Far East on official business in connection with her work as a member of the Subcommittee on the Far East and Pacific of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.

The Subcommittee of which Walter H. Judd (Rep. Minn.) is Chairman plans to investigate conditions and current policies in Korea, Japan, Okinawa, Formosa, Hong Kong, The Philippines, Singapore, Indo China, Burma, Malaya, Thailand, Indonesia and the Marshall and Caroline Islands.

Mrs. Church on her return in December will be in the district until she leaves for Washington for the opening of the Congress January 6th.

During her brief absence the work of the Congressional Office will continue uninterrupted. Her Washington office—1520 House Office Building, Washington, D.C.—will be open as always, and in addition two members of her staff, Mr. and Mrs. Asa B. Groves, Jr. will be in her Evanston office at 300 Church st., University 4-4831, to handle any problems or needs which may arise.

Juniors at Arlington High Given Battery Of Aptitude Tests

All juniors at Arlington Heights high school and those seniors who had not already taken the tests were given a battery of tests under the Illinois statewide high school testing program last week.

The tests given were the California test of mental maturity, a reading test and a writing test. The battery of tests is designed to help the student find out some facts about his scholastic aptitude, or ability to learn from books and classes, his reading ability in the social studies and natural sciences and his abilitiy to write clearly and correctly.

Senior Play November 20

Seniors at Arlington Heights high school will begin next week to sell tickets to the Senior Play, to be presented November 20 in the school gym.

The cast will all be seniors and will include Violet Jeffery, Shelia Gaughen, Dick Snyder, Janann Jarrett, Dave Crittenden, Barbara Ewert, Sherri Rossiter, Carolyn Osburn, Frank Precilio, Judy Peterson, Alise Boyland, Bob Ryan, Ginny Rechberger, Jo Ann Votava, Doug Morrissey, Joyce Nilsson, Tom Williams, and Arlene Ford. The prompters are Pat Eaton and Carol Mullard.

Carole Hedemark, as assistant director, is helping Eugene Howard, dramatics coach in preparation for the performances.

Committee chairmen working behind the scenes are Doug Morrissey, stage crew; Sandy Johnson, publicity; Nancy Brown, costumes; Bonnie Barrow, props; Janet Packard, tickets; and Dale Johnson, lighting.

Tickets will sell at 50 cents for students, 75 cents for adults.

Completes 35 Years With Illinois Bell

An Arlington Heights resident, Adolf Wiegand, 732 S. Beverly lane, recently celebrated his 35th anniversary with the Illinois Bell telephone company.

A PBX equipment engineer in the company's Chicago offices, Wiegand began his career as an equipment installer's helper in 1918. He rose through the jobs of equipment installer, student engineer, central office equipment engineer, diivsion equipment engineer and supervisor. In 1943 he was appointed an engineer in the company's state area engineering department, and four years later was made central office engineer. Prior to being appointed to his present job in 1951, Wiegand served as manuel equipment engineer and dial equipment engineer.

Wiegand is a member of the telephone pioneers, an organization consisting of telephone people with 21 or more year's service in the telephone industry.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiegand have two children, Arlene Nelsen of Des Moines, Iowa, and Ronald, who recently graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology with a master's degree, and is presently attending medical school at the University of Illinois.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. John Wrath, 405 Bob-O-Link rd., are parents of their fourth child, a daughter, born November 1 at St. Frances hospital, Evanston. The baby, Peggy, weighed 7 pounds 12 ounces. She has one brother Timmy, age 3½ years, and twe sisters, Janice, 3 years, and Joyce, 14 months.

Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carey, 629 Oriole lane, have entertained out-of-town guests this past week. They were Col. T. G. Carey of Washington, D.C., who has recently returned from three years duty in Vienna, David M. Carey of Denver and John Carey of Chicago. It has been several years since the Carey family has been able to be in one place at the same time. Out of seven brothers the four of them thoroughly enjoyed being able to visit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Doyle entertained out of town guests Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Madison of Cincinnati, Ohio, spent the day with their neice, Mrs. Doyle, and her family.

The last meeting of the Prospect Meadows Women's Auxiliary was attended by 65 women. Among them were guests from Prospect Heights Newcomer's club and Wheeling Home bureau. Eddie Doucette was the feature speaker. The group wishes to thank Lorraine Brazeau, program chairman, and Sheinden and Son, Florist, of Des Plaines for making it possible to present each lady present at the meeting with a carnation.

Calling All Black Cats! Free Feed

In the belief that less people would associate black cats with bad luck if there were more of them, the anti-superstition society will furnish a free meal to black cats in Chicago animal refuges on the night of Friday, Nov. 13, in order to encourage the care, feeding and breeding of cats of that color.

The announcement came from Nathaniel Leverone, president of the anti-jinx organization, which will hold its annual meeting and dinner at the merchants and manufacturers club Nov. 13. Members will walk under ladders, break mirrors, open umbrellas, spill salt and then sit down to dinner at tables with thirteen chairs.

Vehicle Registrations In State at New High

Motor vehicle registration in Illinois was 115,622 higher at the three-quarter mark this year than it was at the same time last year, secretary of state Charles F. Carpentier reported.

Total registration at the end of September was 2,997,675, Secretary Carpentier said, compared with last year's 2,882,013.

Passenger car registrations were up 116,129, for a total of 2,528,062; trailers and semi-trailers were up 5,478, for a total of 70,217, and dealers, up 233 for a total of 7,302.

Declines were noted in three classifications, Mr. Carpentier said. Trucks were down 5,776, for a total of 367,202; busses, down 149, for a total of 2,272, and motorcycles, down 253, for a total of 22,620.

Collection of license fees for the same period was $12,852,174.47 above last year's figure, for a total of $59,703,760.75.

The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few.

Feehanville School

The officers of the Feehanville PTA wish to announce that the program of the meeting to be held November 20, has been changed. The talk by the school board president, C. W. Flink, has been postponed temporarily, and in its stead will be a display of various hobbies indulged in by the members. It should prove most entertaining, as well as interesting, when the members themselves explain the circumstances under which the hobbies began and the method they used to create them.

Mrs. Eve Anderson will exhibit her collection of fragile China, Mrs. Estelle Grenda, her lovely hooked rugs and afghans, Mrs. Vera Brookhouzen homemade ceramics, which children as well as grown-ups have found interesting enough to attempt, Mrs Dobratz will bring her aluminum trays, and Mrs. Inez Hanson, artificial flowers that are unbelievably real looking.

These ladies in particular, were asked to display their hobbies to the other members because they were known to have them, but if anyone else has an interesting item to exhibit, by all means bring it to the meeting with you.

A double celebration was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Warren. Miss Clara Pearson, pastor of the Forest River church, officiated at the christening of the youngest of the Warren children, Kenneth Martin, whose godparents were Kenneth and Dorothy Warren. A birthday celebration for Mr. Warren was the second occasion of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Leibert became the proud parents of a baby girl October 3 whom they called Linda Lou. Mrs. Leibert formerly was Shirley Leark, daughter of the late Arthur Leark, who was president of the Feehanville school board some years back. Her sister-in-law, Miss Elsie Leibert, became 17 years of age on November 11.

Brownie News

The Brownie Troop committee was very pleased with the successful outcome of the bake sale, and they wish to thank everyone who helped to make it a success. The sum of $43 was raised toward the purchase of uniforms for the leaders. It really turned into a cozy gathering when they served cake and coffee to the people who dropped in to buy some pastries. There may be some pie plates or cake plates still unaccounted for, but Mrs. Eve Anderson will be happy to hunt them down for you.

Social

Two boys celebrated their birthdays this week. Charles Kozel has reached his eleventh year, and George Grenda became 14. George had a few of his friends over to help him celebrate on Saturday.

Mrs. Brandt of Forest River received some bad news this week, when informed that her brother had passed away very suddenly. She and her mother left immediately for Minnesota where the funeral was to be held.

Mrs. Stanley Haverkampf is back in circulation again, and I imagine very happy to be so, though she is far from being well.

The sponsors of the Brigade division of the Forest River church, are having a special brigade night on November 15, at 7:30 p.m., in which the Battalion of Brigade and Stockade will attend a meeting with their parents. There will be a noted speaker for the evening's entertainment, Werner Graendorf, secretary of the Christian Service Brigade international.

A thought in passing . . .

A little boy's friends can get him into hot water a lot easier than his mother.

Good-bye for now.

Top Speakers On Tap For Farmers' City Meetings

Many prominent speakers will be on hand to address the 39th annual meeting of the Illinois agricultural association and its affiliated companies November 16-19 in Chicago.

More than 5,000 Illinois farmers are expected to attend the meetings.

All meetings will be held at the Sherman hotel.

Gov. William G. Stratton will deliver the feature address at a general session Thursday, Nov. 19. IAA President Charles B. Shuman will speak at 9 a.m., Wendesday, Nov. 18.

GEORGE WILSON, president of the California farm bureau federation, will be speaker at the Wednesday evening general session. Wilson, a native of Illinois, was chosen as one of a group of 28 American Farm Bureau organization leaders to accompany "America's Town Meeting of the Air" on a world tour in 1949.

A highlight of the meeting of Illinois Farm Supply company, one of the IAA affiliates, will be an address by Dr. George Scarseth of Purdue university November 17. He will talk on "Soil, Civilization, and Health."

W. E. Olson, meat specialist with the national livestock and meat board, will give a talk and meat-cutting demonstration at the annual meeting of the Illinois livestock marketing association November 16.

Fordyce Ely of Ohio State University will address the annual dairy banquet Monday evening, November 16.

John C. Lynn, legislative director for the American farm bureau federation, will discuss "farm problems and farm policy—past, present, and future," at the national agricultural policy conference.

Farm bureau ladies will enjoy several good speakers at their conference. Harold P. Templeton, Chicago branch manager of a food store chain, will tell about "Meeting the Needs of the Consumer."

Tuesday, November 17, will be official Rural Youth day at the meeting, with the state Talk Fest composing the morning program. Theme of this year's speech contest is "Self Government is My Responsibility." Warren Newberry, AFBF national Rural Youth director, will preside at a discussion Tuesday afternoon.

MAC SAYS

BY G. A. McELROY

THE FOOTBALL SEASON is completed in the suburbs. Ela-Vernon finished undefeated in the Northwest conference and for the season. Barrington opened the season with a 19-18 edging of Arlington Heights and then drubbed the North Suburban schools in all games with a 28-point a game average to opponents average of five.

Wheaton won the Little Seven by top heavy scores for a perfect season. The Little Seven really has had eight schools, but will actually be named properly next year when Wheaton leaves the circuit. Wheaton, with 800 students, poured it on the smaller schools in football this year and they just refused to schedule the champs next year if they remained in the league. That is why Wheaton is electing to step out.

Where they will go as far as conference lines are concerned is a question. No doubt it will be free lancing for awhile until a new alignment comes in other leagues, not too far off.

Thornton won the South Suburban and Proviso had a tie with Highland Park and a one point squeeze past Oak Park in the last two games to stay on top in the big Suburban League. Reavis won all their games in the newly formed South West Suburban conference.

THE LAST TWO WEEKS saw much upsetting of dope as Arlington beat Hinsdale and York whipped LaGrange with the result that York, LaGrange, and Hinsdale all tied with 5-1-1 records for the championship in the West Suburban.

Locally Arlington missed the first division by losing a one touchdown game to Maine in the season final, but the Cards had a good season, and were in the ball game with all their opponents for a change.

Palatine and Bensenville had reversible seasons. Bensenville took their first two from Grayslake and then dropped five in a row by a three or more touchdown average. Palatine dropped their first three to Antioch 12-0, Ela 12-6 and Glenbrook 7-0 and then won four in a row to move from the cellar to the first division.

Grayslake tried unsuccessfully for years to get into the Northwest conference, away from the overmatched North Suburban competition. Finally they made the shift in a trade for Barrington and in two football seasons have finished at the bottom of the heap, and were second division with both basketball teams and the baseball nine.

IN OUR OPINION there was only one standout player in the Northwest conference this year. That was Glen Chaffin, Ela-Vernon's rangy six-foot-three end playing his third year of varsity football. Chaffin did a lot more than just catch passes and enough of them to lead the league in scoring.

He was the toughest defensive end in the league as well. Aside from Chaffin, the picking of an all conference team is a job we are glad the coaches have elected to take from us. We are certain they are not going to agree very well on their final selection, no matter who makes it.

Certainly some of the best boys played only part time this year, or were out for much of the season with injuries. Boys who lost a chance to be real standouts this year due to injuries were Norman Stenzel of Palatine, Tom Walsh of Bensenville, Bill Grenell of Grant, Wally Giernoth of Grayslake, Bob Hecht and Harold Fishback of Wauconda, and Gordon Bruno of Glenbrook.

WE NOTE WITH INTEREST the statistics Hale Hildebrandt tabulated for Palatine based on play by play taken by manager John Dietman during the season of eight games. Palatine's alert play is shown by the fact that they recovered 24 of their opponents' fumbles.

Also that Palatine's best six ball carriers averaged over 4.33 yards per try. Norm Stenzel, who played in only three games due to injuries, average 9.64 a trip.

The team rushing average was 4.83 yards a play. Palatine gained 1,212 rushing to opponents 621. This was easily the best team on offense to represent Palatine high, though most of the punch was packed into the last half of the season.

THE ALL-STAR TEAM has been named by coaches in the West Suburban league. The conference was so evenly matched this year, 27 picks were necessary, an unwieldly group for sports editors.

Of course, with that many boys named on one big squad, there was no room for honorable mention. "Near misses" of other boys were not named.

Don Hoth of Arlington Heights is one of those just missing selection on the mythical squad. He lacked only one vote. Another man misssing the team was Bob McKown of LaGrange, definitely a threat on any squad, who was injured and missed half the season.

INTERESTING SIDELIGHTS about the league: though Maine was outscored, 102-47, the Blue Demons won three of seven games . . . With both LaGrange and Hinsdale losing just one game in each division, our sports department is saving the final standings type for next year . . . Gotta save labor somewhere along the line . . .

Proof a good kicker pays off is shown in the scoring of Jim Heinze of LaGrange with nine conversions, and George Boss of Hinsdale and Wally Strauch of York, each with eight . . . The latter's best effort was "four for four" against Maine October 9 . . .

The nine backs on the all-stars accounted for 34 TDs and 204 points of the 674 scored for all teams . . . Hinsdale's frosh racked up eight straight wins this year, 169-14 . . . Libertyville's frosh won five of seven . . . Hebron's cage squad suffered a blow last week when center John Schulz (6' 7") suffered a broken ankle bone in gym class . . . He'll be out 'till January . . .

Arlington Heights Little League Coaches To Apply

Many home owners may be thinking of storm windows and dusting off snow shovels, but for eighty men in Arlington Heights it's time to take stock of themselves and get ready for next year's baseball season.

The call has gone out for at least 48 men to serve as coaches and managers of Little League, Pony league and Minor league teams in baseball in Arlington Heights. At least 16 teams will be in action, if adult personnel can be obtained, and a manager and two coaches is sought for each squad of youngsters.

A MEETING has been called by Wally Grace, chairman of the team mangers' commmittee for Monday night, November 23, at the fieldhouse, to accept applications for the jobs. Those interested in helping the youth in summer baseball are asked to appear at the meeting, fill out applications, and learn of the work involved. Meeting time is 7:30 p.m.

Also on the committee with Grace, is Herb Carl and Russ Attis. Men interested in helping the program as coaches but unable to attend the November 23 session are asked to secure a blank from any of the three named.

CLINICS ARE planned for the winter months so that the complete program of six Little League, four Pony league and at least six Minor league teams can go into full swing once next summer rolls around, according to Lloyd Taylor, president of the league.

Wheeling Grade Cagers Number 35 Strong For Dec. 1 Opener

Wheeling grade school basketball season will open December 1 with Wheeling playing Mount Prospect in the Wheeling gym. This year's games are to start at 3:30 p.m. Parents are welcome to attend.

There has been a good turnout of about 35 boys for basketball practice, and as soon as the team is selected parents will receive a letter from Coach Marion Omiatek, telling requirements necessary before the boys can play. The seventh and eighth grade girls have been busy with cheerleader practice.

Anyone interested in refereeing school basketball games, man or an older boy, should contact Mr. Norris or Mr. Omiatek at Wheeling 87.

Six Schools Place 4 Each On Annual Team

by BOB PADDOCK

With six schools placing four men each, the annual All-Star football team of the West Suburban conference indicates the type of league race just concluded. Hinsdale, LaGrange and York tied for first place, Glenbard was just one game out, and Arlington and Maine were just out of the first division. Selection included 27 boys this year with all but Maine and Riverside-Brookfield garnering four berths.

Tall ends, heavy tackles and medium backs were the order of the day when coaches picked the boys for all-league honors. Actually, there were few standouts of the caliber of Glen Gallup of Maine of last season, as the entire league seemed to be "down" this season. It meant closer games, however, and increased fan support.

SMALLEST END selected is Tom Kellogg of Maine. Standing 6' 1", Tom weighs just 160 pounds, was noted for his pass defense, a good tackler, and the favorite pass receiver at the Des Plaines school. He played halfback on defense.

Other ends included Charles Verret of Arlington Heights, George Boss of Hinsdale and Tom Peters of Glenbard, all 6'2", and Jack Drinkwater of Downers Grove at 6'3".

Peters had a field day Saturday against Downers Grove as he crossed the goal line four times. He scored TDs against every school except Hinsdale, tallying 61 points for the season.

CHARLEY VERRET of Arlington was rated second to Peters in the conference at end, and caught about 80% of Cardinal passes. He was agile on both offense and defense, good blocker, better than average receiver.

Boss was Hinsdale's kickoff and punt man, scoring eight conversions, backed up the middle of the line, and played end on offense. Weighing 200 pounds, George played outstanding ball all year.

Drinkwater was the best pass receiver for Downers, a good offensive end.

FOUR TACKLES were selected, including two 190 pounders and two at 200. Dave Brant of Arlington has been a varsity man three years, played both offense and defense, was a good plugger. Aggressive, Dave was a better than average blocker, a good tackler.

Allan Fritz of York showed determination all year, played good football the entire season. Jerry Werneske of Downers was heaviest man on the squad at 205, was used best at defense. Glenbard's Joe Saviano served as co-captain with Dean Refram. A tough boy, Saviano tips the scale at 200, a heavyweight to push aside.

SIX GUARDS were named by coaches, including Arlington's John Milnamow. Milnamow was ranked second in the league to Pendexter of LaGrange. His ability to diagnose situations, and blocking on offense were the key to the Heights offensive attack. John was valuable on defense, too, playing all season until hurt in the first quarter of the Hinsdale game. His absence hurt in the Maine final.

Pendexter was rated best lineman of all time at LaGrange, was a member of last year's national champion relay team. He played end on punts, running guard and linebacker, and was the key to the LaGrange squad. When hurt in the second quarter against York the team fell apart and bowed to the Elmhurst school.

KEN KASNICKA of Riverside-Brookfield made three-fourths of the tackles for the last place club, was a good defensive lineman. A short man at 5'9", Ken weighed 170 pounds.

Les Parrish played well on both offense and defense at Downers Grove. Lloyd Zarndt was a good tackler for Glenbard, and backed the line on defense. Gene Kraegel

Hawks To Host Trotter Farm Club Saturday

One of the top sports bargains of the year will take place at the old gymnasium of Arlington Heights high school Saturday night, November 14, when the Kansas City Stars (the Harlem Globetrotters No. 1 farm club) meet Gene Bell's Wheeling Blackhawks, in what should be a terrific basketball exhibition.

The Stars are comprised of top flight material and are led by Globetrotter veteran Duke Cumberland. The Stars stress top-notch play, comedy and showmanship, as do the Globetrotters.

The Blackhawks, under the direction of Gene Bell, former basketball coach at Arlington, have an outstanding list of names on their roster this season, as they prepare to recapture the North Shore crown they won two seasons ago. Headed by "Hawks" veteran Hans Schmidt, the locals' No. 1 scorer and former cage star at Arlington, the team includes George Newman, the Hawks leading North Shore scorer last season; and Art Horcher, 6'2" center and hook shot artist.

THE REBUILT Hawks include Gene Lesch, all-Northwest conference selection from Northbrook high school in 1948 and formerly with the Refiners Pride club of Maywood, which won the Chicago area AAU tournament in 1950. From Barrington comes Wally Kocher, all-Northwest conference choice of 1947, and Bill Meyer, an outstanding set shot artist.

Libertyville high school is represented by Jim Pinkstaff, holder of the North Suburban scoring title and Ted Warning, a 6'3" center.

REJOINING the Hawks this season are Vic Lesch and Eddie Kostka. Lesch, now frosh-soph football coach at York high school, coached the Hawks to their best season three years ago when the locals won 23 and dropped only 7. In 1951, he compiled the best passing percentage of the nation while attending Western State Teachers college at Macomb. While with the 24th division in 1948, he won all-Japan tournament honors in basketball. Lesch prepped at Northbrook.

Eddie Kostka, a member of the Hawks' North Shore league championship team of 1951-52, played in 17 games and scored 162 points. Kostka is a graduate of Arlington High.

FEATURED at half time entertainment will be Commander Willy Necker and his Dalmations, "America's most televised dog act." Commander Necker has appeared numerous times on Super Circus and has also appeared on the Ken Murray show from New York. Game time will be 8 p.m. with admission prices 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students.

Palatine Host In Cage Game Friday

Palatine opens their basketball season in the big spacious new gym this Friday night after but five days of practice. The Pirates will meet Hampshire, a small town in the Dundee unit district, which has been famous for good basketball over a period of years. Little is known of this year's strength but the fact they do not have football and have been practicing since October 1, should make the visitors a tough opening opponent.

The frosh-soph game starts at 7:15 and Coach Art Zimmer has a good squad this year from which to pick a team but even Zimmer will not have much idea of the starting lineup until Friday night.

COACH GENE MOYLAN has 18 boys on his varsity squad with some cuts due in a week or two. Lettermen are "Tinker" Meyer, Pete Abramson, and Bill Breyer. Meyer was regular floor guard a year ago and is in his third season on the varsity team. Due to a knee injury in football, which knocked him out for the season in the first conference game, Meyer's chances of reaching the peak predicted for him are questionable. Moylan has switched him to a forward position and Alan Eck, the speedy junior football halfback may take over the play making position.

Abramson was a regular forward last season a majority of the time and stands six feet two. Bill Breyer played a lot of center late in the season and with a height of six four is expected to be a good rebounder. Larry Hapke did not win a letter but was playing more or less regularly in the last six weeks of the season. He is six feet tall and likely to win a guard position. Another senior with good possibilities is Kenneth Hahn, a rangy six foot three lad who will give Breyer a race for the center position. Roger Kolze is a small senior from last year's varsity squad with a good eye for the basket and good ball handling.

IN ADDITION TO Eck, the high scorer of last years' soph team, Dave Shutz and John Goetz made the best showing a year ago. Other juniors without previous varsity experience are Jim Penning, Jack Mason, Tom Hillesheim, Herb Moehling, Dave Cornwell, Dave Nesset, and Bob Kozy.

Charles Walters is a rangy six foot three junior transfer from Arlington Heights. Juan Duran, an eighth semester senior from Lane Tech, who played halfback on the football team, is also a cage candidate.

A week from Friday Palatine dedicates the new gym with Dundee teams the opponents. Like Palatine this week, Dundee will have only one week of practice prior to the Palatine game. Al Willis, executive secretary of the Illinois high school association will give the dedication speech between halves of the varsity game. Palatine's champ team of 1927 will be introduced, along with other special guests invited for the occasion.

Arlington 4th In Cross Country

LaGrange first, Arlington fourth — that was the bulletin from Glenbard high school Tuesday afternoon when the West Suburban conference cross country tournament was ended. Second was Glenbard, third Downers Grove. Other finishers, in order, Maine, York, Riverside-Brookfield, Hinsdale.

Garnering points for Heights were John Sheppard 6th, Don Drever 13th, Dave Ryden 20th, Bob Rankine 28th, Randy Thomas 33rd. Winning LaGrange had four men in the first ten, including Barry 1st.

LaGRANGE WAS also undefeated in league duals, so is rated conference champ. First ten finishers: Barry (LaGrange), Long (Glenbard), White (LaGrange), Axelson (Maine), Barnes (Downers), Sheppard (Arlington), Romanski (LaGrange), Lawlor (LaGrange) Pond (Glenbard), Etherton (York).

was one of the most determined players for York in that final win over LaGrange for a title tie, played good football all year.

THREE CENTERS were picked this year, headed by John Falter, one of two repeaters on this year's team. John played excellent ball at center for York, was a fine blocker, good linebacker. Standing 6'2", John weighed 180 pounds.

Paul Motta of Hinsdale was a good offensive blocker for the Red Devils, stood 5'10", though weighing only 152 pounds. Frank Caiazza of LaGrange was one of three juniors selected, is 15 years old, stands 6'3", weighs 195 lbs.

Though Frank never passed a ball before, not once did he throw a bad pass this season, even in the season opener against Oak Park. Frank has a good instinct for football, likes to "mix it up" on the field.

NINE BACKS were selected by the coaches, with no selection as to positions. Dick Winterbauer of Arlington Heights was a repeater on the squad, a great competitor. Though Dick has been noted for his passing arm he was switched to fullback early in the year, later sent back to quarter as teammate Roger Thomas came around at full.

Dick's punting was among the best in the league. Certainly among the best competitors on the Cardinal eleven, Dick was never known to have "a hurt," which so often keeps high school players from reporting for practice. More than one boy in the league missed selection on the team for this very reason.

TWO LAGRANGE backs making the team were Bob Grimmenga and Bill Caffey. Grimmenga was a hard runner at fullback, weighing 185. Caffey, a junior, was not a regular until the fourth game, from whence he made himself known. Bill had long runs in all but the Hinsdale game, including 65 yard affairs against York and Downers, and was a threat at all times.

From Hinsdale were Dick Sweeney and Dick Hackenberg. Sweeney was rated one of the best backs in the league, played both offense and defense, was an all-around player. Hackenberg was particularly good on defense, played some on offense.

STANDOUT AT YORK was Bob Kruse, 5'10", 160 pounds. Bob was fast, good competitor, constant threat for opponents. He suffered a broken ankle last spring which knitted in time for football, but did handicap his running.

"Lots of speed and drive for his size" is the best way to describe Dick Dee of Downers Grove. He was the team's main threat all season, very competitive, 5'9", 159 pounds.

Al Bassett of Glenbard was shifty, had speed, ideal for halfback.

FINEST BACK of all time at Riverside-Brookfield high school was the way Alan Kracht was rated by coaches. A workhorse, not afraid of long practice hours, Alan was often hurt but played every game. His kicking averaged 40 yards, an attribute to any squad.

Four players tied for second place in individual scoring, behind Tom Peters of Glenbard, including Caffey and Grimmenga of LaGrange, George Oles of Hinsdale and Kruse of York. All scored five TDs.

Three boys scored 24 points each in league play, including Winterbauer of Arlington, Sweeney of Hinsdale and Dee of Downers.

ROY DeWITZ, Barrington's dead-eye pass throwing quarterback, set a North Suburban record that may stand until he has sons in high school himself. He tossed 18 touchdown aerials in seven games to double the previous record of nine.

DeWitz was too tiny to do much with football as a freshman. Last year he was a midget, but a real hot shooter as a sub on Barrington's conference and regional champion basketball team. This year he sprouted up to five feet 11 inches, but still weighs only 145. With that added height keep an eye on DeWitz in basketball.

Public Rifle, Pistol Shooting Range In Des Plaines

Like to shoot? Want to sharpen that firing eye?

A .22 calibre rifle and pistol shooting program is underway in the basement rifle range of the Rand park fieldhouse in Des Plaines. It began Wednesday, Nov. 4, and will continue each Wednesday evening beginning at 7:30 p.m. through April 30.

The program is sponsored by the Des Plaines V.F.W. rifle and pistol club, 1952 state of Ilinois champions, under the auspices of the national rifle association of America.

Any man living in the northwest suburban area is eligible. The only requirement—he must be at least 21 years of age.

To join the shooting, men are urged to come to the Rand park fieldhouse Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m., or send a card or letter to Sam Campagna, care of Des Plaines V.F.W., Des Plaines.

Glenbrook Clings To Third; Tops Grayslake, 20-12

Antioch finished a very fine football season at Wauconda Saturday by chalking up their fifth league victory and sixth for the season against a tie and one defeat by whipping the tough Wauconda Bulldogs 13-6. Bill Blake went over on a short plunge and Fred Miller converted in the first quarter for Coach Kessenich's second place Sequoits and Bill Gallagher plunged five yards for the other touchdown in the final period to complete a 70 yard march.

Wauconda's touchdown came on a 30 yard run by Harold Fishback in the third period.

GLENBROOK HELD on to third place in the final standings with a fine 5-2 record as they outscored last place Grayslake 20-12. The Spartans had to come from behind a 12-0 first half deficit to win.

After a 75 yard march Larry Laske went over from the three yard line to give Grayslake an early edge and the Rams drove 45 yards with Jay Hook scoring a second score in the first period. After a scoreless second quarter Glenbrook went to work and got two touchdowns and both extra points for a 14-12 lead in the third period.

Dave Corso scored both touchdowns for Glenbrook, one on a six yard dash and the other on a 19 yard pass from quarterback Frank Radloff. In the last quarter Coach Sherman's Glenbrook boys got an insurance touchdown by Tom Wallmo after Frank Radloff had intercepted a pass and carried the ball to the Grayslake 20.

Western Specialty Dog Show Nov. 22

More than 1,000 outstanding dogs of thirteen breeds will be in Chicago Sunday, Nov. 22, from all parts of the United States and Canada for the 41st annual combined show of the Western Specialty clubs association.

All dogs in the show will be on view throughout the day, in addition to their turn in the rings.

Palatine Cops 4th Straight In 25-7 Win At Bensenville

Palatine won their fourth straight Northwest conference victory Friday night at Bensenville, 25-7, in a roughly played ball game. Palatine lost three boys and the Bisons one by referee ejection due to unnecessary roughness in its various forms. Palatine suffered 120 yards in penalties which might have been disastrous in a close game, but the Pirates had such a great edge in ground gaining that only one penalty had an effect on the score.

The Pirates gained 149 yards on the ground while Bensenville had more lost than gained with a minus 21 yards. The Bisons were more successful on passes with seven completions in 19 attempts for 88 yards. The Bisons might have held the score down considerably had they not fumbled the ball away. Palatine recovered six of eight Bensenville fumbles and several set up scoring opportunities.

THE FIRST touchdown followed a Pirate recovery of a Bison fumble on the kickoff on the 31 yard line. A 10 yard run by Stenzel followed by a 14 yard sprint by Eck set up the chance for Norman Stenzel to plunge for the touchdown. Palatine was offside as Dave Cornwell kicked the extra point but on a second try Lorden passed to Larry Hapke for the conversion.

A little later Bensenville made their only scoring bid of the game and tied the score. Herb Brown passed to D'Hooge for a 43 yard gain and followed with a 10 yard aerial to Gene Benhart. A 15 yard penalty on Palatine set the Pirates back on defense to their seven yard line. Here Brown passed to John Baumgartner for the touchdown and Bob Fritsch kicked the extra point.

LATE IN SECOND period Bensenville got off a poor punt which went out on their 33 yard line. Palatine struck for another touchdown in three plays. Dave Cornwell got nine off tackle, Juan Duran circled left end for 14, and Alan Eck went over from the nine yard line. The kick was missed and the half ended 13-7.

Penalties held down the Palatine offense in the third period though Stenzel had a run of 24 yards and Eck one of 17. Bensenville recovered a Palatine fumble on their 24 on one occasion but fumbled the ball right back to the Pirates at the same point.

AT THE START of the final period Ray Lorden intercepted a Bison pass and ran 23 yards to the Bensenville three. On a weak side play from the single wing formation Lorden smashed over for the touchdown. Two plays later Dave Nesset recovered a Bison fumble on their 11 yard line and Dave Cornwell went over on the fourth play.

Palatine had eight first downs all by rusing. Bensenville's three were all through the air. Norman Stenzel, back in action for the first game since the league opener at Antioch had a net of 54 yards in 10 running plays while Allan Eck had 50 in six tries.

The victory gave Palatine undisputed fourth place. It was Bensenville's fifth straight setback after winning their first two conference games.

Ela-Vernon Makes It Unanimous With 25-6 Defeat of Grant

Ela-Vernon high school won the undisputed and undefeated championship of the Northwest conference Saturday night when they won their seventh straight league game at Fox Lake by beating Grant 25-6. Ela had eight straight wins for the season including a non-conference victory at Oswego.

Saturday night the Bears scored twice in the second quarter for enough points to win the game with Louis Riso going over from the one yard line after Ela had recovered a fumble on the 32. A little later Don Prouty plunged one yard to score following a very poor Grant punt which went out of bounds on the 15 yard line. Two more tallies came in the final period when Fenner tossed a short pass to Chaffin from the two yard line and later threw one of 34 yards to Tom Rorke.

Grant got their score on a three yard line smash by Bruce Sanburg after Grant had taken possession on a fumble on the Ela 24 yard stripe.

Maine Drubs Arlington Twice In Final Contests, 7-0 And 19-7

Arlington's varsity and frosh-soph football teams rang down the curtain on the 1953 season Friday night at Maine when the veterans were blanked, 7-0, and the yearlings were outplayed 19-7.

Neither game created much action for the Heights elevens with the varsity still basking in that win over Hinsdale the week before.

Then, too, line bulwark John Milnamow was not able to dress for the game for Heights, plus injuries to Verret, Mueller and Hoth early in the game all contributing to the defeat which saw an inspired Maine squad determined to beat the Cardinals.

MAINE SCORED its only touchdown via a 50 yard aerial play in the third quarter with Jerry Stromberg carrying the ball. Bolstering the Maine attack were Bob Musser and two others back in action after missing duty due to injuries. Musser has been kicking placements in spite of a broken collar bone.

The whitewash was the first applied this season against the Cardinals. Last year the brush was used against our stalwarts four times.

Only threat on the part of the locals was early in the first quarter when Charles Verret blocked a Maine punt on their own 20. Wayne Mueller caught the ball on the 25 and ran it to the four, but an offside penalty queered the deal. Heights never reached deep into Maine territory thereafter.

MAINE DOUBLED the yardage on Arlington, 186-96, with the winners also leading in first downs, 11-7. There were 14 punts in the contest, attesting to the defensive play of the two teams.

Ebert's seven yard end run climaxed the only drive for the Arlington frosh-sophs in their 19-7 defeat in the preliminary. Ebert also ran the extra point.

For Maine it was Capetta to Fick on a four yard pass play in the second period, plus Rutkowski to Fick 23 yard pass play in the third. Rutkowski tallied the final TD for the young Demons in a two yard end run after another drive.

Otherwise the Card sophomores were ineffective, rushing for nine yards in the first half and 108 the second. Ebert totaled 72 yards for the night, John Sujack 44. Arlington completed one of four passes, Johnson to Boeger, for 27 yards.

Glenbrook to Pry Lid From Basketball at Niles Saturday

by DICK SHIRLING

Glenbrook's 1953-54 Basketball campaign got under way November 3 at Glenview naval air station. Varsity basketball coach, Howard Helfrich, has all candidates going at full steam.

Glenbrook's gymnasium, which will not be completed until January has forced the cagers to practice at the air station. However, the facilities are exceptionally good and things are going as planned.

With the football season now closed, a few more boys reported for practice Monday, November 9.

Boys reporting for practice are: seniors, Roland Bitzer, Tom Lay, Bob Garrett, Bob Pinnow, and Gordon Bruno.

The rest of the team is made up of the following juniors: Les Fry, Kent Vana, Jerry Goettsche, Gene Lembke, Dick Shirling, Ed Schoenfeld, John Randolf, George Lannin, Bob Ritchey, Lew Crawford, Ken Schulties, Orval Thorsen, and Al Mackie.

Saturday, November 14, the Spartans play a non-conference game against Niles of the Suburban league at Niles.

Maine Harriers Trip Heights, 27-29

Placing six boys in the first ten was not enough for Coach Russ Attis of Arlington Heights Friday afternoon at Des Plaines when the local harriers lost a 27-29 decision to the Blue Demons.

Axelson finished first for Maine with John Sheppard carrying the Cardinal and White into second. Then came Linden of Maine, followed by Bob Rankine of Arlington. Marcy took fifth for the hosts, followed by Don Drever in sixth for Heights.

In seventh spot was Weis of Maine with Ray Hornbostel, Dave Ryden and Randy Thomas finishing eighth, ninth and tenth for Arlington. Will of Maine finished eleventh.

The meet was close all the way with Drever losing a shoe midway in the race.

Illini To Have Rougher Test At Wisconsin

Illinois' defense, superb against Michigan, will face its roughest test of the season against Wisconsin at Madison Saturday and Coach Ray Eliot put his charges through some rugged work today as he charted plans to stop the Badgers.

Encouraging news came from the Illini camp Monday when Fullback Stan Wallace and Guard John Bauer reported for duty. Both are expected to be ready for atcion against Wisconsin and barring practice injuries, the Illini will be at full strength for the first time since the Minnesota game October 17.

"OUR DEFENSE was at its peak against Michigan," Eliot commented. "I thought our entire team did a good job. Offensively we perhaps weren't as impressive as we have been in other games, but credit that to a tough Michigan team.

"But, this week we meet an offense that is more rugged than that of Michigan. Scout Bob King reports Wisconsin has exceptional running power wtih Alan Ameche, Gerry Witt, Harland Carl, Clarence Bratt, Bob Gingrass, and Charlie Thomas.

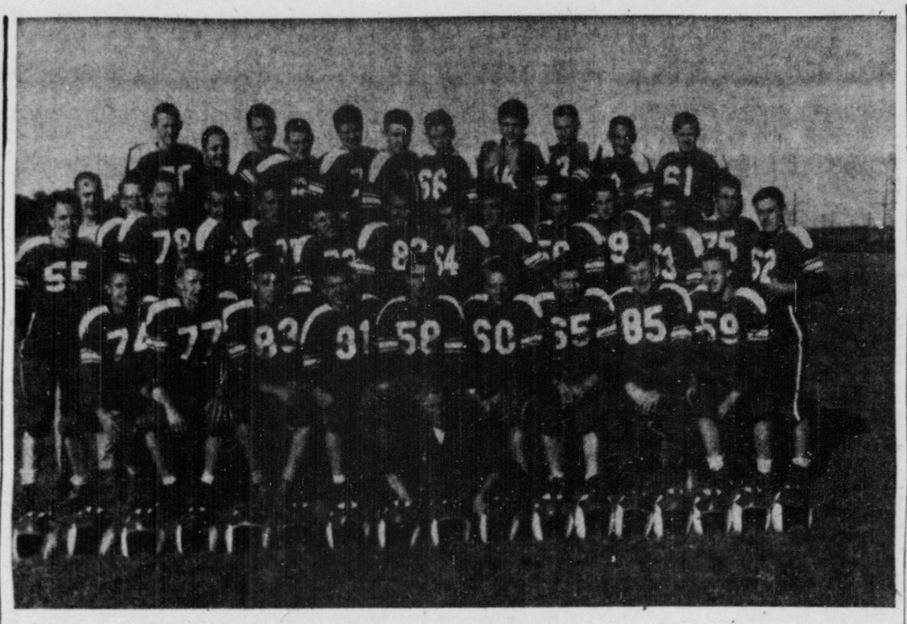

"Then, too, this new quarterback Jim Miller presents a problem because of his ability on the option run or pass play. King says that he does some things even better than Paul Giel of Minnesota and we had plenty of trouble with Mr. Giel."

ELIOT contemplated no lineup changes from the eleven which faced Michigan, although if Wallace and Bauer prove sound, both will be used extensively against the Badgers. Ken Miller turned in a fine performance in victory over the Wolverines and guards Jan Smid and Bucky Tate have been impressive throughout the season.

Caroline has rolled to 1,075 yards on the ground in seven games while Bates is challenging the all-time Illinois scoring record, having crossed enemy goal lines 11 times this season.

He needs only two more to equal the mark held jointly by Red Grange, Johnny Karras, and Buddy Young.

Rabbit Population May Be Higher Than Last Year

Although your hunting license says you may take 8 rabbits in a day and have 16 in possession, the law actually sets a limit of 5 per day with 10 in possession. This somewhat confusing state of affairs comes about because the laws regulating the bag limits were not passed in the legislature and signed by the governor until after the 1953 hunting licenses had to go to the printer.

The chances are that any hunter who does take 8 rabbits won't be pinched but just warned, the first time. However, ignorance of the law doesn't excuse and anyone suspected of intentionally violating is likely to find those extra 3 rabbits rather expensive.

REPORTS from all over the state recently indicate the general rabbit population is still down though possibly improved over last year. The kill by hunters is usually an insignificant portion of the population in comparison to the kill by tularemia, automobiles, or the biggest killer—lack of cover. So far we haven't been able to do much to control the kill by disease or automobiles but we can do something about the hunter kill, so the law is aimed at reducing the number of rabbits taken in this manner.

We are making slight progress in the greatest factor affecting rabbits, the lack of adequate cover. In the last few years hundreds of miles of multiflora rose fences have been planted and some of these are now grown to the point where they are furnishing fine cover for rabbits. Although many thousands of miles of more rose hedges are needed we are optimistic about the future planting program and in time will see these hedges all over the State.

THE ADVENT of the mechanical planter has boosted the planting of multiflora rose and trees to a very appreciable degree. With its use a crew of three men can plant up to 20,000 seedlings in a day where previously only about 2,000 could be set by hand.

When we have cover—we will have rabbits.

St. Paul won two games from St. John Friday in P.A.M. Lutheran dart ball league, 5-2 and 7-2, then bowed to the losers, 11-7. M. Bach was St. Paul's leading hitter with seven safeties in 14 times at bat. C. Landmeier hit safely eight of 13 times for St. John.

Faith took two of three from St. Peter, 6-4 and 3-1, then lost 6-0. Single game performances included G. Schaeffer in the second with 3 out of 4, A. Behrens in the third with 3 hits in 4 at bats, and R. Sass in the first with three-for-five.

Another Brain Teaser

Since the "brain teaser" on what player was lifted for a pinch-hitter on his second trip to the plate in a World's Series, after hitting a home run on his first attempt (George Shuba, 1953) caused so much comment—this newspaper offers another: "What city has had teams in both the American and National Leagues—but never both at the same time?"

Readers of Paddock Publications sending in the correct answer on a postcard, postmarked not later than November 14, to The Sporting News, 2018 Washington Ave., St. Louis 3, Mo., will be mailed a copy of the latest issue of the baseball weekly.

Is Gavilan As Great As Sugar Ray?

Whether Kid Gavilan is as great a champion in his division as the man he succeeded, can never be answered for Sugar Ray Robinson has retired.

However, one thing is certain. Gavilan has lived up to Robinson's fabulous reputation as a "good will ambassador" for boxing.

While most fighters are considered local favorites in their native territory Gavilan is a popular champion where ever he fights.

While Johnny Bratton hails from Chicago, where he will try to wrest the welterweight championship from Gavilan, November 13, the fans won't necessarily be 100 per cent behind their native son.

It was just a few short months ago that Gavilan defended his title in this same Chicago against another favorite, Chuck Davey. In that fight a new all time welterweight championship gate record was set at . . . $275,454. Thus, it follows that Gavilan made many friends that night, in kayoing Davey for his first defeat.

On another night, in Philadelphia, he fought Ray Robinson to the closest decision ever rendered in a welterweight fight for the Sugar man. No other fighter ever came so close to beating Robinson in that division as the Kid did in Philly with two judges voting 8-7 in favor of Sugar Ray. Again, the Kid made many friends in the City of Brotherly Love and added to that total when he knocked out the native son, Gil Turner. Turner, like Davey, was undefeated before he met Gavilan!

Why more than a million owners this year have chosen the "Worth More" FORD!

They have discovered first hand what the surveys show... Ford, with all its fine-car features, is worth more when you buy it, and worth more when you sell it!

OVER A MILLION OWNERS can't be wrong! Ford is the one fine car in the low-price field. It gives you the "GO," the style, the comfort, and "build" of cars that sell for far more. And, it's only natural that Ford keeps its value better, in resale, than any other car on the American Road. Check the features below for some of the "Worth More" reasons for the swing to Ford.

Lowest-priced V-8 in America! And the only V-8 in the low-price field. Ford's high-compression V-8 power plant delivers its "Go" as regular gas!

Most Modern Six of all is Ford's high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker. With Overdrive, it was the winner in 1953 Mobilgas Economy Run.

Smoother Ride, with front end road shock reduced up to 80%, is another Ford big-car feature... and you get it without gas-eating extra weight.

Fine-Car Build means using steel of the same quality and thickness as in costliest cars. Ford is the most completely insulated car in its field.

Fordomatic Drive is the only "automatic" in its field with the "Go" of an automatic intermediate gear plus the smoothness of a torque converter.

Finest Power Steering—that's Ford Master-Guide. Does up to 75% of the steering work yet retains normal steering "feel" on the straightaways.

Join the swing to FORD ...take a Test Ride today!

Curtain time is 8:15 p. m. —Fellingham Photo.

Luncheon Treat

Here's a suggestion for Sunday breakfast or a luncheon treat. Stuff a tart with deviled ham. Dot with butter, and sprinkle brown sugar over the top. Bake in the gas oven until tender and serve with griddle cakes and bacon.

About The Barber Shoppers

by GEORGE GLOW

The baritone section of the Arlington Heights Barber Shoppers is mighty good. Just ask any one of them. But don't take their word for it, attend the Third Annual Night of Harmony, November 22, at 8:15 p. m. in the old gymnasium of the high school in Arlington Heights.

The harmonious tones of the baritones of the Arlington Hts. chorus will be rendered by John G. Allen, owner and operator of "Custom color without custom cost" paints and wall paper store; William A. Berndt of International Harvester company; William G. Bott, industrialist; Dan Krebsbach, engineer for Walter Norris Engineering company, and a member of St. James Catholic church choir and the baritone of the Four Hoarsmen; George Larson, "professor" at Arlington Hts. high school; Guido P. Pellegrinetti, draftsman for Schmidt, Garden and Erickson; Ira S. Parker, member of Arlington Heights planning commission and a former member of the Chicago Mendelssohn club; Gus E. Salmen, foreman for Village Development Co., and Carl Scheske, industrialist.

A more select group of baritones will not be found in any chorus throughout the state. Tickets to the show November 22 may be secured from any one of these men.

Stan Myers, president of Arlington Heights chapter, urges the public to attend this concert. He assures everyone it will be long remembered as a most pleasant evening of entertainment.

Orchard Place Asks to Be Part of Des Plaines

An estimated 90 per cent of the Orchard Place residents penned their names to a petition asking annexation to Des Plaines. The area specified as desiring annexation is bordered by Touhy on the north, Mannheim on the west, River road on the east, and Devon and Higgins on the south.

Most of the homes in this area are serviced by the Higgins water company which has two deep wells and now has under construction a 100,000 gallon reserve standpipe. The area is now serviced by the Des Plaines Fire Department under the South Maine Fire District and receives its mail via the local postoffice.

Nancy Heimsoth Karen Fischer Sharon Mahometa

Elk Grove Community

Last week Wednesday Elk Grove school chose Nancy Heimsoth of the eighth grade and Paul Kluge of the seventh as its representatives in the Daily News spelling bee sectional to be held December 10 in Arlington Heights. Nancy and Paul finished first and second in an upper grade spelldown of which Mrs. Balson was spelling master and Mrs. Paulus and Mr. Turner were judges.

Reminder

At parents' night next Thursday Dr. Carl S. Winters of Oak Park will speak. He is famous both for what he says and how he says it. All residents of the district and their friends are invited to hear him at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Admission is free.

Mothers' Club Meeting

At the regular meeting of the Mothers' club today, Thursday, Dr. Novak of the Tuberculosis institute will speak. There will also be a short program by the fourth grade musical group. Refreshments will be served.

Skating Party

Most of the eighth graders attended a skating party last Thursday evening at the Arlington Heights rink. Several parents and Mr. Malcolmson accompanied them.

Immunizations

A program of immunizations will be carried out at Elk Grove when Dr. Ann Leonard of the County Health department will be at the school December 4 to give shots and vaccinations if enough parents are interested.

A 35 cent fee will be charged for individual shots or the vaccination or tuberculosis test and also for the three-way booster for diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough combined.

These are booster shots and are needed only if the previous booster or original injection was given three or more years ago. Vaccinations are good for five years.

Report Cards

Today, Thursday, first report cards are being sent home. Generally speaking, grades indicate achievement, but consideration is given effort and improvement. Discipline and school adjustment do not affect their grades but instead are marked separately.

Parent Conferences

Teachers are currently scheduling conferences with parents in their classes. These conferences will be held after school during the week before and after Thanksgiving. Conferences will last about 10 minutes. School will be dismissed at noon November 24 to give the teacher a chance to schedule a good many for that afternoon.

Parent-teacher conferences enable the two to become better acquainted and to understand more clearly the needs and problems of the individual child.

School Closed

There will be no school next Wednesday. Teachers will be spending the day visiting in various schools in the area to learn "how they do it in their schools."

Library Opens

School library is now in full operation. The library, now in its new location in a former cloak room on the second floor, has been set up by Mrs. Snap. A student assistant is on hand when boys and girls use the facilities.

Assistants are Nancy Heimsoth, Karen Fisher, Bill Johnson, D. Scharringhausen, Lester Landmeier and Carol Loeding. Alternates include Diane Knutson, Emily Reimer, Andrea Duran, Deborah Eichling, Dierra Krieder and Peggy Siedenburg.

American Education Week

This is American Education week and during this week especially interested parents are invited to attend classes and learn what the teaching staff is trying to do for the children.

Community News

The Eichlings' dog, Bonnie, has six new puppies, some black and white and some brown and white.

There is a $10 reward for a male cat named Teddy. He is 7½ years old, black on his back and the back of his feet.

Joyce Schulze went to Michigan Sunday to see her aunt.

Kathy Ciolac's sister Patty had a party for her fifth birthday. Thirteen guests attended.

Deanna Dalton visited the home of a friend Sunday where they have four baby kittens.

Chuck Lemke went to the air show at Glenview Naval Air station Sunday.

Marvin Zuege is happy because all five of his baby bunnies are alive.

The 65 year old grandmother of Barbara Denman passed away recently.

Karen Fischer went to Chicago over the week end.

Cage Coaching Clinic At DeKalb Saturday

The physical education department of Northern Illinois state teachers college will hold its annual basketball coaching clinic Saturday, Nov. 14.

Northern basketball coach Gil Hertz and prep cage coaches Greg Sloan of Rich township high school and Harry Kinert of Oak Park will be featured on the program along with Rockford basketball official Frank Falzone.

The program will open at 8:00 a.m. with a coffee hour, followed by Falzone's rules interpretation session at 8:30. Kinert will lead a discussion of offensive styles and techniques at 9:30, and Sloan will conduct a meeting on the fast-break offense and zone press at 10:30.

An open forum discussion, presided over by Hertz, will be held at 11:30. The clinic will feature a film of basketball highlights of the 1952-3 season, also.

U.S. SHIPPING DROPS.

In 1946 American ships carried as much as 65.3 per cent of the country's foreign trade. In 1952 this figure had dropped to 37.4 per cent.

Storage room in Arlington Heights high school cafeteria where canned and dried food supplies are stored. The school receives many items from the government's surplus commodities list which helps to supplement the regular food purchases. The surplus commodities enables the school to serve a filling lunch at a small price. —Staff Photo.

Eight of the nine staff members of the Arlington Heights high school cafeteria take their positions to start serving the more than 1,200 lunches sold daily at the cafeteria. Left to right: Mrs. Helen Martini, Mrs. Olga Pratchen, Mrs. Olive Catherwood, Mrs. Verna Freise, Mrs. Ada Koch (behind post), Mrs. Ella Garms, Mrs. Sophia Fiene, and Mrs. Ella Kastning. —Staff Photo.

Open house was held Sunday afternoon in cooperation with the governor's committee for the observance of the 50th anniversary of powered flight at the Glenview naval air station.

The show featured flight demonstration by the famed "blue angels" and the Navy's Skyray, the world's fastest jet, was flown by her pilot, Lt. Cdr. Verdin, who established the record.

Modern dishwashing equipment enables the members of the Arlington Heights cafeteria staff to do the dishes, trays, and silverware in a matter of minutes after the students finish their lunches. Here three staff members on right scrape dishes and separate them as they are returned. Another stacks them in wire baskets, which are placed on a conveyor that takes them through dishwasher. The heat is so intense the dishes dry as soon as they hit the air after leaving dishwasher, dispensing with any need to dry dishes. The latest piece of equipment is a silverware washer, which eliminates any special handling of silverware. —Staff Photo.

Second row: John Dilks, George Beyer, William Broch, James Campbell, Harold Verdung, William McDonald, John Wehner, Grant Urhammer, Edward Bergo.

Four hundred grilled cheese sandwiches were part of the menu served at the Arlington Heights high school cafeteria last Friday. Mrs. Ella Kastning is shown as she begins toasting the sandwiches on the large grill. Immediately to the right of the grill is the Steamer Chef oven, which is capable of cooking two bushels of potatoes in 40 minutes. In the right rear can be seen one of the two reach-in refrigerators used in the cafeteria. —Staff Photo.

Now 53 Million Vehicles In U.S.

Automobile Facts and Figures is published annually by the Automobile Manufacturers Association. The new 80-page edition, just released, also reports that:

U. S. motor vehicles traveled more than half a trillion miles in 1952.

Highway users paid $5.3 billions in special taxes in 1952.

Taxes took 29 cents out of the automobile sales dollar in 1952, compared with 14 cents in 1939.

31 million families in the U. S. now own automobiles.

1952 traffic fatalities per 100 million vehicle miles were 7.3 — lowest since records have been kept.

In terms of constant dollars, 1952 highway expenditures in the U. S. were below prewar levels.

Three out of every four cars sold in the U. S. last year replaced cars being scrapped.

29 per cent of U. S. automobile drivers are women.

IN ADDITION, the book discloses that 129 million motor vehicles have been produced in the U. S. since 1900, and that last year's output exceeded that in the rest of the world by some two million units.

More than 75 per cent of the world's passenger cars are in the U. S., but for the first time in history U. S. trucks are outnumbered by those in other countries. In 1952, America's 9.4 million trucks comprised 48.3 per cent of the world total.

Throughout the world, there are approximately 78 million cars, trucks and buses in operation, or one for every 30 persons. More than 53 million are in the U. S., which boasts a motor vehicle for every three persons.

There are enough motor vehicles in the U. S. to carry the nation's entire population at one time, with enough space left for all the people of Italy.

THE AGE of motor vehicles scrapped in 1951 averaged 14 years, and average lifetime mileage was 121,000. Twenty-seven years earlier, the average life was 6.5 years, and average lifetime travel only 25,750 miles.

The wholesale value of last year's U. S.-built motor vehicles was $8.7 billion. Replacement parts and accessories had a wholesale value of 2 billion.

Editors Visit Rome, Vatican

Three days, between ships, enabled Editor Stuart R. Paddock to visit Rome during his recent trip under the auspices of NATO. His impressions of that city are being passed on to readers of this paper in the following letter received four weeks after the actual visit.

The guide book covering Rome opens with this sentence: "Rome is a world, the museum of all ages, the native land of the arts, the sanctuary of incomparable memorials." The visiting group of editors agreed that there could not be a better description.

We were not the only tourists who had come from various points about the world to visit the scene where the early Christians were thrown to the lions; a city that had its beginnings 752 years before Christ; a city in which the stories of the Greek gods under Roman names have been handed down to the present age in the form of statuary, mosaics and paintings; the city of Nero, Caesar, Mark Anthony and others, whose exploits are told in today's history books.

This Flavios Amphitheatre de Colosseum was erected before Christ. It is known throughout the Christian world as the place were the early Christians were fed to the lions.

That history was made more real to us as we viewed the arches erected in the memory of Argentari, Constantine, Janus, Titus and others. Some of the columns are supposed to have stood for 2,000 years. There are several square miles in the center of the city that are occupied by remnants of forums of Roman rulers, the palaces and public buildings erected during the centuries that Rome ruled the known world.

The Italian love of beauty in gardens, fountains and churches was in evidence everywhere. The average Italian may enjoy "dickering" for anything he buys or sells, but only in one place visited, the Borghese gallery, was there evidence that an admission charge had been made. Rome and its treasures appear to be free to all who come to view them.

Structures standing today and many of them which are destined to last through many of the coming centuries are the Pyramid of Caius Cestius, known as the tomb of Romulus, the Pantheon, (originally erected by Agrippa 27 B.C.), great stretches of the wall that encircled Rome, the tower from which condemned prisoners were pushed off to their death and dozens of other medieval buildings, some of which are in use today by some civic authorities.

The great Coliseum was of special interest to the visiting editor. One side is still standing. We walked in the concourse where the members of the Roman nobility sauntered during intermissions of spectacles. The immense amphitheatre was built by Hebrew prisoners between the years 72 and 80 A.D.

It was partially destroyed by the Norman invasion. A large cross has been raised in its interior in the memory of the innumerable Christian martyrs who gave their lives for their faith before thousands of bloodthirsty spectators.

Rome is a city of cathedrals and churches, the most important of which are St. Paul's outside the walls, and St. Peter's within the Vatican city. Both are monuments of structural beauty that cannot be described by printed word.

St. Paul's is built over the mausoleum that holds the bones of St. Paul and is near the hill on which he met his death by order of Nero. The original building, erected in 450 A.D., was destroyed by fire in 1823. It has been rebuilt on the same foundations.

St. Peter's is called the greatest church in Christianity. Its erection required 176 years. It is dominated by the dome of Michelangelo. Such masters as Raphael and San Gallo and others of the 15th and 16th century had a part in its design and construction. Before the great building is a square, a harmonious poem of immensity.

The colonnade on both sides is the finest work of Bernini and forms a solemn entry to St. Peter's and the Vatican. We editors had to deny ourselves the opportunity of attending the pope's audience at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, because of the time of plane departure. The pope was scheduled to appear for five minutes on a balcony within the church at that hour, in recognition to the thousands of devout Catholics who had traveled to Rome to visit the shrine.

St. Paul's and St. Peter's both contain many chapels, in one of which we saw three priests busy in christening ceremonies of many babies and young children.

Words cannot describe the beauty of the interior of both churches, including statuary, the large pictures constructed in mosaic, the ornamental ceilings and walls.

Time limited the editors to 45 minutes to view the art treasures in the Borghese galleries. In a palace of many rooms are collected statuary and paintings, the equal of which is not to be found outside of Italy. Perhaps it was the Italian belief that no visitor would deface any of the objects of art that allowed the public to roam through the rooms. There were no rails or "do not touch" signs. Art lovers could spend days in the galleries. We non-artists carried away with us the thought that fortunately Rome was declared a neutral city during World War II.

A series of articles to appear on this page in coming issues will describe navy life on the carrier, Bennington, and the cruiser, Baltimore, which represented the United States at the June coronation.

Growing Pains

As an individual I have been a resident of Mount Prospect since 1937 and have seen the town grow from a small town to its present status. The growth, as we all know, has been residences that have added a great deal of expense to the taxing bodies by the population increase. I have seen my own taxes trebled in the time I have lived here.

The town itself has not been able to keep up tax-wise with the increased costs which has meant that some of the local organizations have stepped in to help out. The fire department has purchased a good deal of its own equipment and has also given the village the site on which the village hall stands.

The Lions club has twice purchased street signs, donated a park, which is not being used as hoped, and has done a number of other things to help improve. Many individuals have done a great deal for the town and several families have also been great contributors to Mount Prospect's betterment. Through lack of proper publicity they have suffered ridicule and abuse by residents and non-residents for doing so.

As president of the chamber of commerce for the coming year, I would like to offer a solution to our problem. In the first place, we are definitely going to continue to grow. Well and good, but at the same time we can grow right.

There is a good deal of property on both sides of the railroad suited only for business or light industrial purposes. Why not invite more business or light industrial firms to Mount Prospect? They can assume some of our tax burden without adding to the burden of bringing in more children to the schools. It may be years otherwise until the area mentioned is built up. Other cities and towns have done this with excellent results. Most of the buildings erected have contributed a great deal to the appearance of the neighborhood.

This solution appeals to me and I would welcome the village board bringing the matter to the people. The issue is squarely before the board and I hope you will be able to do something to alleviate the situation as it now stands.

Dog Licenses

If dog owners buy a license, and hang it on the dog's collar, the pet would be returned in a very short time in case the dog strays. All applications are kept on file and can be viewed at any time. The number on the tag enables the police officer to locate the owner.

Of course, for those owners who don't care about the dog's well being, they do not buy a license. Sometimes the dogs become panicky and get lost. Then if you do advertise for a lost dog, describe it as well as you can, giving the pet's name, etc.

Why Wednesday?

Ever since we moved to Arlingago, I have wondered why all the business houses close every Wednesday afternoon. I can appreciate the fact that the help needs some time away from business, but why Wednesday afternoon?

In one of your recent columns, a woman said her house was in a turmoil on Monday morning. I heartily agree with her. Monday is, of course, "washday." Besides, for suburban dwellers, week ends are busy times when unexpected guests often stop in. Making Monday morning the time almost every housewife is busy "picking up." I for one never get to do any shopping Monday morning, and very often could shop Wednesday afternoon. I've suggested to a couple of merchants that they change their half day closed time fron Wednesday afternoon to Monday morning and they seem agreeable. I wonder how many people feel as I do.

The idea could be enlarged during the summer months in stores where the sales force is large enough so that they would work at half force Saturday afternoons and every other week would have off from Saturday noon to Monday noon. This would allow week end trips they never could make before because of driving conditions Saturday and Sunday nights. I hope more people will write in their reactions to the idea.

"Mrs. Monday."

Tricks Or Treats

Whoever was responsible for the "Trick or Treat" idea, please find some solution as I think this is getting out of hand. It was supposed to be that the children have one night a year to dress up and go around from house to house with their little song "Tricks or Treats," but now the song has another line added "Money or Eats."

If some of the parents had to take the sass their youngsters give when a person hands them a piece of fruit or a piece of candy, I would like to see what they would do. These youngsters are getting out of hand and there is no better time to put a stop to this unpleasant situation than right now.

IN UNINCORPORATED areas, where there is no police protection, it is even worse. The people who have no youngsters, or those who don't allow their children to go out on these excursions, and the pensioners, are the ones who suffer the most. In some instances when all treats had run out and the little beggars were given a penny each, the giver is called names. When parents are notified, they are called "crabs."

The parents should arrange with their neighbors a program for the children to follow and respect other people's privacy. We teach our children it is wrong to threaten people, and they can be prosecuted for doing so. Now comes this new idea

NO ONE begrudges the children a little fun as they are children such a short time, but this threatening the neighbors is too much.

Now is the time for all those interested in children's welfare to get together to plan something to occupy the youngsters next Halloween, such as the local PTA group, scout troops, youth groups civic clubs, churches, and also the parents who allow their children to go out and don't first instruct them in good manners.

Let's hear from some others on how they feel about this situation.

Moon Is Blue

Recently, our local theatres have announced the intention of showing the movie "The Moon is Blue." This movie was refused approval by the motion picture industry censor board in Hollywood. The movie in its substance seriously offends and tends to deny Christian standards of morality and decency. Local critics from Chicago newspapers have all stated the emphasis lies upon suggestiveness in dialogue, while not commenting upon the morality of such a movie.

I protest the exposing of the good people of this town to this movie further tending to breakdown Christian morality more than it already has been broken down today. Freedom does not mean license, and liberty does not include the power to destroy what is good.

I protest also against the acceptance of advertising for this movie, since the movie itself is immoral and suggestive. The advertising for this movie can only further emphasize the suggestiveness and immorality.

Home Town Paper

Enclosed is my subscription for the next year's issue of the newspaper. It's funny how a hometown newspaper grows on one. I'm still a comparative newcomer to Arington Heights, especially when measured against the residence of someone like yourself or my cousin, George Schneberger, etc.

Incidentally, I've enjoyed your comments during the cruise with the fleet. As a Naval Reservist myself, I am happy to hear that you are now a full-fledged "seagoing" sailor, even to the "working khaki" uniform.

Nevertheless, it's also nice to have you back again.

Now's The Time For Mailing For Christmas

Parcel post for armed service personnel in Korea, Japan and the Pacific islands should have been mailed by November 1. Articles addressed to Europe or American possessions will be delivered by Christmas if posted before November 15.

Christmas cards are the bright spot in overseas mailing. They may be sent by air mail as late as December 11. However, all overseas Christmas cards bearing three-cent stamps should be mailed by November 15.

AIR PARCELS for overseas are limited to two pounds. At regular parcel post rates, the weight limit is 70 pounds. Packages may not exceed 100 inches in combined length and girth.

Foodstuffs such as fruitcakes, cookies and candy seem to be the most popular gifts for servicemen. Don't mail perishable items. Matches and lighter fluid are forbidden. Expensive gifts should be sent by registered mail.

Select a durable mailing carton of wood, metal or fiberboard. Line it with newspapers to cushion any shock. Use a heavy wrapping paper and strong cord to prevent parcels breaking open.

LABELS frequently fall off when exposed to moisture, so print directly on the wrapping paper. Include return address. Repeat them both inside on the mailing carton. It's also a good idea to enclose a list of contents. "Do not open until Christmas" stickers may be attached. Place them where they won't obscure the address.

Last year, 500,000 pieces of mail were canceled by the Arlington Heights post office between December 1-25. This year an even heavier volume is expected.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

FROM PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

If you want to read a suspenseful, compelling, group of true stories stranger than fiction, I suggest that you get hold of a copy of, "Natchez," by Harnett T. Kane. This is a book you won't easily put down, once you have started it. The stories themselves are fascinating, but it's the sometimes earthy, sometimes lustrous, always brilliant writing that resists any desire to stop reading before the book is finished.

I certainly had no idea that Natchez, Mississippi played so great a part in America's expansion, both in its role of frontier and in its connection with many famous men who figured prominently in our early history. The word "Natchez came from the name of an advanced, haughty Indian tribe, probably an offshoot from the Aztecs. When La Salle, in 1682, came down the Mississippi with his followers in search of the mouth of the river, the high, brown bluff rising above a great sweep in the river was still resounding with the ceremonial drums of the red men.

IN 1700 THE FRENCH founders of Louisiana saw the importance of this high spot for a military outpost, and in a war with the Indians won it for themselves. But, as "a gay widow who often changes her name," this vital area passed successively into English hands, Spanish hands, and finally American dominance.

Each of these rulers, however, left their marks, socially and architecturally—the great landholder and his family, grandiose balls, dazzling garden parties, cotillions and reels, bejeweled women and white silk-stockinged men entertaining only other bejeweled women and white silk-stockinged men, and of course, the slaves living in huts and shacks on one small piece of the vast plantation. Architecturally speaking, France and Spian introduced the balconies and piazzas of half tropical living, and the Creoles (in this region refers to white rather than Negro) showed the advantage of a main upper floor to avoid the dampness of the area and to get the moving air, if any, and the advisability of broad porches to avoid the hot sun.

THE ANGLO SAXON settlers tried a switch to the delicate Georgian one-storied dwelling, but this was too insignificant for the big ambitions and big pocket books of the rich American cotton kings. The rococo "Golden Age" bloomed with great columns, front and back, and everything enlarged inside and out.

It is primarily about these fabulous mansions and the lives of their owners and families, that the book is written: stately Springfield where Andrew Jackson stayed with friends during the early days of his tragedy-plagued romance with the beautiful Ratchel Robards, Windy Hill in whose gardens the debonair schemer, Aaron Burr, walked with Madelaine whom he loved greatly, but not enough to overcome his thirst for power, Arlington, the palatial manor built and extravagantly decorated by Jane White, who on the very night her home was opened for its initial ball, died a violent death in her bed (stories have it, at the hands of a slave) and Annie, the girl from very poor beginnings, who lived to marry wealth and become the mistress of this plantation, Brierfield, that saw the turbulent and tragic lives of Varina and Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederate states.

MR. KANE also describes most graphically the other side of Natchez—the water-level Silver Street side, known as "Natchez Under the Hill," where in filth and blackness of night long ago any known sin was committed, and from which Natchez gained an evil reputation.

How I would love to visit Natchez now, and see the many old homes still standing whose stories I've just read—I guarantee you will want to visit it too, after reading this remarkable book.

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

Love may rule the world but it certainly does it the hard way. Some young 'uns of our acquaintance claim to be in love. They aren't necessarily in love with anyone, but just in love. This causes much standing around in the middle of floors and gazing either soulfully or vacantly into space. They do not speak when spoken to because they are strictly out of this world. This is ruling the world?

Now, a dog of our acquaintance is in love too but he is far less quiet about it. For long periods of time he weeps and moans. Now he has taken to bowling his wolf call to the joy and delight of the neighbors. This must be what is commonly known as puppy love and puppies can have it.

The new one way streets seem to be working out pretty well. However, the other day we were forced to pause in the middle of Campbell street while a poor soul got herself pointed in the wrong direction. There she sat, undecided whether to go forward and really break the law all over the place or to go backward and snarl up traffic behind her but good.

If we had been male we would have sneered and muttered dire imprecations under our breath about stupid women drivers. As we are female, we sat and agonized right along with her over her predicament. Besides we have done the same thing ourselves and we felt real criminal about it. We even caught ourselves glancing furtively out the window for a passing gendarme. We have always wondered if one had shown whether we would have shot it out with him. We felt that badly over our mistake.

We are fast approaching the indoor time of the year. This is the time when we surround ourselves with paint brushes, swatches of materials, wallpapers, and projects that will take us until the year 2,000 to finish. This is just the time that we swear solemnly to get our Christmas shopping done early this year. This is the time that we put snow suits and boots on the young only to take snow suits off. This is the time of year when it is dangerous to walk through out living room as the floor is strewn with our offspring, our friends' offspring, and their projects. The question that now arises is whose projects are the most important. The answer is, theirs, of course. So much for our good intentions. The old shopping will be done three days before the great day as usual.

Part of the fun of sending personalized Christmas cards is choosing the subject that best reflects your own individuality and taste. So wide is our selection, that you're sure to find here the perfect expression of your holiday mood and message.

OPEN FRIDAY EVENINGS UNTIL 9

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

During the past 20 years there has come about a degeneration in the character of many Americans which is lamentable. For generations, Americans have been respected for their ability and determination to stand on their own feet, their individual independence, their passionate love for freedom, their willingness to defend their rights as individuals from unnecessary government control.

Today, Americans are demanding unemployment insurance preference to saving for a rainday; cradle to grave security; subsidies for price support instead competition on the open market; government housing at cost; government financing or assistance build everything from Chic Sale specials to the world's largest dam. The demands made by the American people on their government are increasing rather than diminishing.

WHAT IS THE PRICE of such government assistance and socialized security? With every new demand we surrender a portion of our liberty; with each new demand we increase the burden of taxation, and take another big step toward dictatorship; lose more of our personal dignity, and the independence from tyranny which has made America great.

We cry out in hatred of communism and socialism, yet with each new demand we march closer to them Today, one third of every person's salary goes for taxes What will it be tomorrow? Two thirds? Three fourths? How far off is the day when we will have reached the end of the trail where the government becomes our employer, the profit system in free enterprise is destroyed, and socialism or communism takes over?

* * *

LET US HAVE faith that we Americans will see the light before it is too late. Let us tighten our belts, throw back our shoulders, and say to government: "This far and no farther; give us back our pride, and let us walk in dignity as free men."

From Excise to Sales

Both President Eisenhower and Secretary Humphrey still fight shy of the supposed-to-be suicidal general sales tax. Actually, excise taxes yielded $8.8 billion in fiscal 1952, when retail sales were $15 billion Liquor and tobacco paid $4 billion in excises on $9 billion of sales, roughly. Taking these out $4.8 billion in excise taxes was paid on $147 billion sales, an effective sales tax of 3.2%.

Campus Capers

At Illinois

Miss Wilma Stack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stack of Northbrook, will sing November 22 at the University of Illinois' production of "Magic Flute." She will be the First Lady of the trio.

Miss Stack is a music student at the university.

At Valparaiso

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wetterman and Ted Jr., Oakton st., Arlington Heights, were guests of Cynthia Wetterman, a sophomore at Valparaiso university in Indiana Saturday Nov. 7.

They participated in the annual dad's day festivities, attending a football game, partaking of a buffet supper, and seeing the premier showing on the homecoming day movies.

Cynthia is a graduate of Arlington Heights high school. She is majoring in English and is a member of Alpha Phi Delta sorority.

At Illinois College

Ronald Ramstedt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Evert C. Ramstedt, Mtd. Route 2, Palatine, has been elected Prudential chairman of Gamma Nu, men's literary society of the Illinois college campus. He has also been pledged to the Illinois college chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, national college service group affiliated with the boy scouts. Throughout all his activities he has maintained his standing as an honor student.

Ramstedt, a sophomore, is a graduate of Palatine high school with the class of 1952.

At Lawrence

Roger Kennedy, 511 S. Pine st. Arlington Heights, is one of four Lawrence college senior men who were named November 5 to Phi Beta Kappa, oldest and most highly regarded scholastic honorary fraternity. The election was made known by Dr. Maurice P. Cunningham, president of Wisconsin Gamma chapter.

Kennedy, whose major is biology, has been treasurer of Delta Tau Delta fraternity and is now their rushing chairman. He has a letter in varsity track, has sung in the Lawrence college choir, taken part in theater productions, and is solicitor for the Lawrence United Charities.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Kennedy.

At Iowa State

Max Deethardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Deethardt, 702 S. Elmhurst, Mount Prospect, will exhibit a college animal in the 1953 Little International livestock show at Iowa State college Saturday, Nov. 14.

At Illinois

Jeannine Burnier, 516 Fairview st., Arlington Heights, has been cast in "Playboy of the Western World," the university theatre's second major production of the 1953-54 season at the University of Illinois.

Miss Burnier, a senior in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, will portray Widow Quin. This is her first cast work for the theatre.

"Playboy of the Western World" will be presented November 18-20 in Lincoln Hall theatre.

At Navy Pier

Two Palatine students are enrolled this year as freshmen at the University of Illinois' Chicago undergraduate division. They are James R. Schwingel and Ona Tins, 223 N. Brockway st.

At Wheaton

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wessner of 38 S. Ridge ave., Arlington Heights, attended the thirty-first annual homecoming at Wheaton college the week end of October 31. Mr. Wessner graduated in 1947, his wife in '44.

At Monmouth

One of the most active musical organizations on the Monmouth college campus is the vesper choir. This choir participates in the monthly vesper service along with various other campus programs, and each spring the choir sings on tour.

A member of the Monmouth college vesper choir is Eunice Ewert of 310 S. Emerson st., Mount Prospect, a freshman at Monmouth.

At Orchestra Hall

Janos Starker, new principal cellist of the Chicago symphony orchestra, will make his debut as a soloist with the orchestra when, under Fritz Reiner's direction, he performs the Concerto for Violoncello, in B. Minor, Opus 104, by Dvorak at the season's sixth pair of subscription concerts Thursday, Nov. 19, at 8:15 p.m. and Friday, Nov. 20, at 2:00 p.m. in Orchestra Hall.

Two members of the Chicago symphony orchestra, Perry Crafton, of the first violin section, and William York, assistant first violist, will be the soloists when George Schick and the orchestra present the season's fourth Saturday evening concert November 21 at 8:15 p.m. in Orchestra Hall.

An eight-year-old Chicago pianist, Margaret Harris, will be the soloist on the second program of the Chicago symphony orchestra's current young people's concerts series at 3:00 p.m. in Orchestra Hall on November 17.

Stint yourself, as you think good, in other things; but don't scruple freedom in brightening home.

How far away are your baby's college days?

They'll be here before you know it. And right now is the time to make sure he'll have the money to go . . .

YOUR DREAMS FOR YOUR CHILD—a better life, an education—can you guarantee they will ever become realities? You can, if you start saving today! Not next month, not in a dozen years or so, but now is the time to build for his future. It's easy and it's sure with the Payroll Savings Plan.

Here's how it works: You tell your company's pay office how much you want to save—anywhere from a couple of dollars a payday to $375 a month. This sum is automatically invested in U. S. Series E Savings Bonds, which are turned over to you, and which earn interest for you.

Here's why it works: Once you join, your saving is automatically done for you before you even draw your pay. Just think—if you sign up to save $3.75 a week, in 5 years you'll have $1,025.95. In 9 years 8 months, $2,137.30. And in 19 years 8 months you'll have $5,153.72! So that about the time that baby of today is ready to enroll, you'll have the amount he'll need to see him through.

A college education, a home of your own—whatever your objective, it's yours for the asking when you save systematically. Join the Payroll Savings Plan—or, if you are self-employed, join the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank.

Your baby's future starts today . . . when you save with United States Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan!

How you can reach your savings goal on the systematic Payroll Savings Plan

	If you want approximately
	$1,000	$5,000	$10,000	$25,000
Each week for 5 years, save	$3.75	$18.75	$37.50	$93.75
Each week for 9 years and 8 months, save	$1.85	$8.80	$18.75	$45.00
Each week for 19 years and 8 months, save	$0.75	$3.75	$7.50	$18.75

This chart shows only a few typical examples of savings goals and how to reach them through Payroll Savings. Remember, you can save any sum you wish, from a couple of dollars a payday to $375 a month. The important thing is, start your Plan today!

Death Notices

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Kenneth R. Tesmer, 3 years ago, Nov. 12.
Memories are treasures no one can steal,
Death is a heartache nothing can heal,
Some may forget him now he is gone,
But we will remember no matter how long.
Mother, Dad and Kucera Family.

CARD OF THANKS

Our heartfelt thanks to all our friends, relatives and neighbors who extended comforting sympathy and help in our recent bereavement. For the beautiful floral offerings and other kindnesses, and also the sermon by Rev. F. L. Gehrs, we are deeply grateful.
Emil Holste and Children.

Bits O' Business

The fine worsted wools that go into men's high-quality suits, are selling well after a dull summer . . . Wheat stocks on October 1, at 1.5 billion bushels, were up 196 million from a year earlier . . . Japan got a $60 million Export-Import Bank credit to buy American cotton.

Featured Violinist

Perry Crafton, 6924 N. Ottawa ave., Chicago, will be featured as violin soloist at the "pops" concert of the Chicago symphony orchestra at Orchestra Hall Saturday, Nov. 21. He will be heard in Mozart's "Sinfonie Concertante" together with William York, viola player.

Mr. Crafton, a member of the Chicago symphony, is known in this community as conductor of the Northwest symphony orchestra, a recently organized group of non-professional musicians, rehearsing every Tuesday evening under Mr. Crafton's baton at Maine high school and preparing for a public concert to be given in January.

Purchasing Agents Still Wary of Future

The national association of purchasing agents has just published its October report, and it shows these shrewd industrial buyers facing firmly in two directions—as confused as the rest of us.

At the end of September, the purchasing agents expected October to be tough. At the end of October, they pronounce it not so bad. Order books declined—a little. Employment was lower—but not much. Production cuts were made—in a few places. However, the slide they had feared in all these categories didn't develop. As a group, the purchasing agents are fairly happy.

However, the report also tabulates individuals' policies for the near future. Buying policies remain from day-to-day ordering up to 60 days. Inventory controls are tightening. Price commitments are made as brief as possible. All these are the actions of buyers expecting substantial price declines. Man by man, the buyers are still scared of the future.

ARLINGTON Rainbow AUTOMATIC WATER SOFTENER contains

the amazing water softening material (manufactured by THE DOW CHEMICAL COMPANY) you've been reading about.

Throw money down the drain? Never you say! Well, the dollars you've been spending on soaps, scouring cleansers, and breaking powders represents a considerable amount of the yearly income. With a RAINBOW water softener installed in your home the savings begin immediately. Throughout the day, RAINBOW continues to save you money in your food, washables, soaps and even plumbing and heating system.

- TROUBLE FREE SERVICE. DOWEX ZEOLITE is RUGGED, it is not affected by acid or alkaline water, and will withstand heat up to 250 degrees F.
- HIGH CAPACITY* Each cubic foot of DOWEX softens more water than other type softeners.
- LONGER LIFE* Our softeners are manufactured to last for many years.

RAINBOW REMOVES IRON, AS WELL AS HARDNESS

The DOWEX in the RAINBOW Water Softener removes all hardness. The water is then 100% soft or zero-soft. When the DOWEX beads become loaded with calcium and magnesium they are regenerated (cleansed, reconditioned) by passing a salt solution through them. In a few minutes the water softener is again ready to provide an abundance of soft water.

$355 completely installed.

Presenting The Younger Generation

Typical Girl

The sweet smile on the little girl pictured first belongs to Sally Kay Faner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Faner, 640 S. Beverly land, Arlington Heights.

Sally has light brown hair and hazel eyes. She will be 4 years old in December. This little lass likes to play with her dolls and enjoys playing outdoors. Other favorite activities are coloring and playing with cut-outs, and she is an avid fan of Ding-Dong school and Child Craft school on TV.

Sally attends Sunday school at the Presbyterian church. She has an older brother, Ricky, who is in second grade.

Grandparents of the children are Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Faner of Erie, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. George McConley of Washington, D.C.

Sports Enthusiast

Blond-haired, blue-eyed Edwin Ray III is pictured next. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ray, 1703 W. Brown st., Arlington Heights.

This young fellow is interested in sports and enjoys playing baseball and football. He also likes archery and has fun riding his bicycle.

Edwin is 7 years old and is in second grade at the Ridge school. He has a pet dog named Snapper.

Mrs. Edwin Ray and Mrs. Marie Morin, both of Chicago, are Edwin's grandparents.

Little Red Head

Bright red hair and blue eyes describe the coloring of Jean Nolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Nolan, 833 N. Princeton, Arlington Heights. Jean was 6 years old when the above picture was taken.

We are sorry that we were unable to contact Jean's parents for further information.

Young Cowboy

One of the favorite activities of Billy Meek, pictured last, is playing cowboys. He is the son of Dr. W. W. Meek and Mrs. Meek, 9 W. Daniels rd., Palatine.

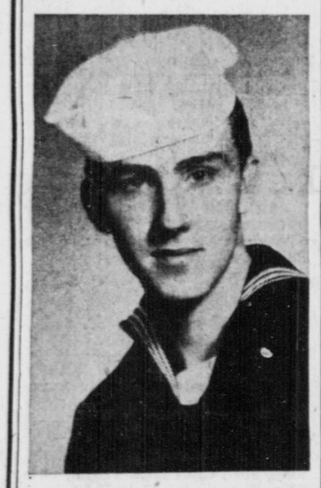

Billy has red hair and blue-green eyes. He will be 6 years old in January. He likes to play outdoors and to build things. This young lad recently acquired a tool set, and he enjoys makcg things with his tools.

Billy attends kindergarten in Palatine and attends S school at the Christian Science church in Barrington.

His grandparents are Mrs. Benjamin Meek of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Dumas of Park Ridge.

With Uncle Sam

Home on Leave

Robert J. Paul, who has been serving on the USS Washburn for the past 14 months, will be home to spend Thanksgiving with his family.

Bob has been to China, Japan, Alaska, Korea and the Hawaiian Islands.

Bob and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Paul, moved to Arlington Heights from Chicago two years ago. His father is working for the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. in Chicago.

In Texas

A/3c Donald G. Zuehlke, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reynold J. Zuehlke of 725 N. Willow rd., Itasca, has entered the aircraft mechanics school at Sheppard air force base, Texas, the home of the largest technical school of this type in the world.

During his specialized training as a student at Sheppard he will receive intensive training designed to provide him with the thorough knowledge and basic skills required in servicing, inspecting and maintaining aircraft currently used by the air force.

Airman Zuehlke attended Bensenville high school prior to his enlistment in the air force June 3.

Out of Marines

Vernon Wandersee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Krueger of Arlington Heights, was released from the marine corps November 4, following two years service.

Vernon was in the marine aviation division and was stationed at Glenview at the time of his release. He received his basic training at Parris Island, So. Carolina and was also stationed at Cherry Point, No. Carolina.

Alums to Dine

Western college for women alumnae of the Chicago area and their husbands will meet Monday evening, Nov. 16, at 6:30 p.m. for dinner at the college club of Chicago, 30 N. Michigan Avenue.

"LYNCH THE BARGAIN MAN" Says...
Perhaps You've Wondered How It's Possible To SAVE UP TO 50%
at BARGAIN CITY

HERE'S THE STORY:
We are often able to acquire brand new merchandise at far less than the original manufacturer's cost. This is, many times, the result of overstocked shelves, expiring leases, sheriff's sales or other unforseen events.

THIS MEANS we can, in turn, pass these savings on to our customers. That's why you can expect savings of up to 50% or more at BARGAIN CITY.
NATURALLY, we do not always have complete lines or size ranges but on the items we have that you can use, we guarantee you WILL SAVE!
